Class of 2026 Inductees

Pete Montgomery

Outstanding Contributor

Pete Montgomery joined the staff at Willowbrook High School in the fall of 1994, marking the beginning of a dedicated 33-year career with the school that spans through the 2026–2027 academic year. Throughout his long-standing tenure, Pete has demonstrated leadership both inside and outside the classroom, most notably serving a decade as the Social Studies Department Chair from the 2009–2010 school year through 2018–2019. Beyond his instructional leadership, he has been a driving force in preserving the school's sports legacy as a member of the Athletic Hall of Fame Board of Directors since its inception in 2008, serving as the coordinator of nominations and managing the inductee address database.

In addition to his academic and administrative contributions, Pete has established a legacy as a foundational pillar of Willowbrook's athletics through his extensive work with the soccer program. He has guided the boys soccer program across 20 seasons in a variety of roles, serving as Freshman Coach (1994–1996, 2022–2026), Sophomore Coach (1997–1998, 2004–2008), and JV/Assistant Varsity Coach (1999–2003). His involvement with the girls soccer program is even more expansive, spanning 33 seasons through spring 2027. His service to the girls team includes stints as Freshman Coach (1995–1996), Sophomore Coach (1997–2004), and Head Varsity Coach from 2006 through 2012, during which he accumulated 40 wins while mentoring 15 players who earned Chicago Red Stars/Chicago Fire All-State Academic honors. He continued to support the program as JV/Assistant Varsity Coach from 2005 and 2013–2022, before taking on his role as Assistant Varsity Coach from 2023 through 2027.

Pete's decades of commitment have earned him widespread recognition within both his school and the statewide soccer community. He was named the Willowbrook High School Assistant Coach of the Year in 2026. On the regional level, the Illinois High School Soccer Coaches Association (IHSSCA) has repeatedly honored his impact, recognizing him as the Section 2 Assistant Coach of the Year in both 2013 and 2021, and ultimately naming him the IHSSCA Section 2 Soccer Person of the Year in 2025.

Les Orlow

Class of 1975

Les Orlow, a member of the Willowbrook High School Class of 1975, established a lasting distance-running legacy as an eight-time varsity letter winner across cross country and track & field. In cross country, Orlow was a four-year varsity letter winner, four-time Des Plaines Valley League (DPVL) All-Conference selection, two-time team captain, and a two-time IHSA State Qualifier. At the 1973 IHSA State Meet, he earned All-State honors by placing 15th overall—a mark that at the time was the 36th fastest junior time in state history—before returning to place 19th as a senior in 1974. On the track, Orlow matched his four varsity letters and four DPVL All-Conference honors with three individual conference championships, capturing the 1973 DPVL Indoor Mile, the 1975 DPVL Indoor 880, and the 1975 DPVL Outdoor Mile while serving as team captain.

In the summer of 1975, he was selected as one of 36 Chicago-area track athletes to tour and compete across Europe with the South Suburban Striders, highlighted by running a 3:56 1600-meter race in Paris, France on Bastille Day. Orlow carried his distance-running success to the collegiate level at Illinois State University, where he was a dedicated eight-time letterman across both the Redbirds' cross country (4 letters) and track & field (4 letters) programs. Following his collegiate career, Orlow continued his lifelong dedication to the sport as an accomplished high school track and cross country coach.

Eric Roy

Coach

Eric Roy, an inducted member of the Willowbrook Athletic Hall of Fame and Northern Illinois University (NIU) Athletic Hall of Fame, established a legendary administrative and coaching career following a stellar collegiate athletic tenure. Competing in both soccer and wrestling at NIU, he earned six varsity letters and was nicknamed “Mr. Hat Trick” as a prolific Division I center-forward, setting school records for match, season, and career goals before his 1999 NIU Hall of Fame induction. He went on to bring that competitive drive to Willowbrook High School, where he founded the varsity boys' soccer program in 1974.

Over four varsity seasons, Roy's Warriors posted 50 wins with a .750 winning percentage, contributing to his overall high school coaching record of 245-92-16. Under his guidance, Willowbrook captured three Des Plaines Valley League Championships (1974–1976), two Lyons Township Tournament titles (1975, 1976), three IHSA Regional titles, and the 1975 IHSA Sectional Championship, culminating in an IHSA State Finals Elite Eight appearance. His landmark 1975 campaign earned him IHSA Coach of the Year honors as his team achieved top-five state rankings in both the Chicago Tribune and Chicago Sun-Times. Beyond soccer, Roy served six seasons as Willowbrook's sophomore wrestling coach and personally mentored one High School All-American, seven All-State selection athletes, and 16 All-Conference players.

Roy's impact extended far beyond the playing field as he transitioned into school leadership at Willowbrook High School, serving as Assistant Principal from 1978 to 1981 and as Principal from 1982 through 1988. He later went on to serve as Athletic Director for Leyden High Schools beginning in 1990. Through his trailblazing achievements as a foundational soccer coach and dedicated high school administrator, Eric Roy left an indelible mark on Willowbrook High School and Illinois high school athletics.

In just the program's third year of varsity competition, the 1975 Willowbrook High School Boys Soccer Team produced an exceptional campaign under the guidance of Head Coach Eric Roy, who was named Coach of the Year for his leadership. The Warriors established themselves as an elite force early on, posting a 15–5 record and capturing both the Lyons Invitational Tournament and a share of the Des Plaines Valley League (DPVL) championship. Willowbrook's high-octane offense and stingy defense dominated opponents all season, racking up 63 goals while allowing only 19 goals against. The attack was led by goal-scoring sensation Mohamed Awad, who tallied 28 goals, with key offensive support from Steve Wilke, Jeff Hockett, and Franco Defeo, each contributing 8 goals.

The Warriors navigated a challenging postseason path to establish their state-level dominance. Willowbrook claimed the IHSA District (Sub-Sectional) Championship by defeating rival St. Joseph—avenging a postseason loss from the previous year—and overcoming Addison Trail, a team that had beaten them earlier in the regular season. They followed up with an intense overtime victory against Lyons Township to secure the IHSA Sectional Championship. In that matchup, Steve Wilke set up Mohamed Awad for the dramatic winning goal, punching Willowbrook's ticket to the IHSA State Finals as one of the Elite Eight teams in Illinois.

At the State Finals, Willowbrook faced defending state champion New Trier West in an intense opening-round match. The Warriors fell 1–0 after conceding an early second-period goal, despite generating several near-scoring chances. Franco Defeo nearly tied the game with a header that bounced off the crossbar, while Mohamed Awad struck a shot off the post. New Trier West held on for the win but was so worn down by Willowbrook's physical play that they lost their subsequent match to eventual state champion Hinsdale Central—a team Willowbrook had defeated four times in their program's brief three-year history.

The 1975 squad earned widespread individual recognition for their remarkable run. Five players were selected to the DPVL All-Conference team: Mohamed Awad, Franco Defeo, Steve Wilke, Jeff Hockett, and Pat De Adessis. On the state and regional levels, both Mohamed Awad and Franco Defeo earned IHSA All-State honors, with Awad further distinguishing himself as an All-Midwest Team selection. Their extraordinary accomplishments paved the way for future program success and cemented the team's place in school history, culminating in their official induction into the Willowbrook Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jane Trotta

Class of 1977

Jane Trotta, a member of the Willowbrook High School Class of 1977, stands out as one of the most versatile and accomplished multi-sport pioneers in school history. A rare 12-time varsity letter winner across four sports—volleyball, basketball, tennis, and softball—Trotta was recognized as the Class of 1977 Most Valuable Female Athlete, receiving the prestigious Helen Carpenter Award. She also made school history by becoming the very first female recipient of the Press Publications Athlete of the Year Award. Throughout her high school career, Trotta served as a team captain in all four of her sports. On the court and field, her standout accolades included earning three varsity letters, All-Conference, and All-Area honors in volleyball; two varsity letters and All-Conference honors in basketball; three varsity letters, two All-Conference selections, and an IHSA State Qualifier appearance in doubles tennis in 1977; and four varsity letters alongside two All-Conference and All-Area honors in softball.

Trotta continued her exceptional multi-sport success at Elmhurst College, where she earned eight varsity letters across basketball and softball while also serving as the team statistician for the football program. In basketball, she was a four-year letter winner, three-time team captain, and All-CCIW selection. She matched that performance on the diamond as a four-year letter winner, three-time team captain, All-CCIW selection, and Softball Most Valuable Player. Capping off her collegiate career, Trotta was named the 1981 Elmhurst College Most Valuable Female Athlete. Her groundbreaking achievements as an elite multi-sport athlete earned her induction into the Willowbrook Athletic Hall of Fame.

Scotty Tumilty

Class of 2019

Scott “Scotty” Tumilty, a standout member of the Willowbrook High School Class of 2019, built one of the most remarkable multi-sport legacies in school history before continuing on to an illustrious collegiate career. A recipient of the prestigious 2019 John A. Fischer Award, Tumilty earned eight varsity letters across three sports during his prep tenure: football, basketball, and baseball. On the gridiron, he was a three-time varsity letter winner, two-time team captain, two-time WSC Gold All-Conference selection, two-time Daily Herald All-Area selection, two-time IHSFCA All-State Honorable Mention (2017, 2018), 2018 IHSFCA Academic All-State honoree, and the 2018 West Suburban Conference Gold Co-MVP. On the hardwood, the two-time letter winner and team captain was named Willowbrook’s 2019 Defensive Player of the Year, while on the diamond, he earned three varsity letters and two WSC Gold All-Conference selections.

Tumilty took his athletic pursuits to the collegiate level at the University of St. Francis, where he earned six varsity letters across football, baseball, and track & field, along with the National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar-Athlete Award. As a four-year letter winner and team captain for the Fighting Saints football team, Tumilty proved to be a dynamic force on both defense and special teams. He was named a two-time NAIA All-American, a three-time finalist for the prestigious Cliff Harris Award, a nine-time MSFA All-Conference selection as a defensive and all-purpose player, a 12-time MSFA Player of the Week, and the recipient of the Brandon Burlsworth Character Award. He cemented his name in the school’s record books by setting St. Francis single-season and career records for both return yards and return touchdowns. Multi-talented beyond football, Tumilty started 31 games in baseball (batting .280 with a signature walk-off home run against undefeated Olivet Nazarene University) and excelled in track & field, setting the St. Francis 100-meter record (10.57 seconds), winning the 100M at the Chicagoland Championships, and collecting three CCAC All-Conference honors across indoor and outdoor sprint events.

Following his collegiate success, Tumilty pursued professional football opportunities, receiving an invitation from the Chicago Bears to attend a Pro Day workout at Northern Illinois University. Evaluated alongside scouts from both the Bears and the Minnesota Vikings, he clocked a blistering 4.46-second 40-yard dash, placing him in the 84th percentile among all safety prospects eligible for the 2024 NFL Draft. Tumilty's extraordinary athleticism, leadership, and academic achievement ultimately earned him induction into the Willowbrook Athletic Hall of Fame.

Adam Sousa

Class of 2018

Adam Sousa, an elite gymnast from the Willowbrook High School Class of 2018, stands as one of the most distinguished and decorated athletes in the school's storied athletic history. A standout three-time varsity letter winner for the Warriors, Sousa dominated both the conference and regional gymnastics landscape throughout his high school tenure. His relentless precision earned him a remarkable 16 West Suburban Conference Gold (WSCG) All-Conference selections. Over the course of his high school career, he achieved the rare feat of becoming a two-time WSCG Champion in every single event, capturing pairs of conference titles in the All-Around, Parallel Bars, High Bar, Floor Exercise, Pommel Horse, and Vault.

Sousa made an immediate and transformative impact as a freshman in 2015. At the IHSA Sectional competition at Hoffman Estates High School, he captured three individual sectional titles—placing first in the floor exercise, parallel bars, and the all-around. His individual brilliance helped propel the Warriors to an overall team score of 148.4, capturing the 9-team sectional plaque and advancing Willowbrook to the IHSA State Team Finals for the first time in 24 years (since 1991).

On the state stage, Sousa established a standard of excellence that remains unparalleled in program history, setting a Willowbrook school record by earning 12 individual IHSA State Finals medals. His state podium journey began in 2015 when he earned four state medals as a freshman: taking 5th in the All-Around and Pommel Horse, along with 6th-place finishes in the Parallel Bars and Floor Exercise. As a sophomore in 2016, he elevated his performance further, finishing as the State Runner-Up (2nd place) on the High Bar, 3rd on Vault, and 4th in the All-Around.

The defining moment of Sousa's career arrived during his senior campaign at the 2018 IHSA State Finals. Delivering a masterclass in concentration and physical mastery, Sousa went an incredible 18-for-18 on his routines without suffering a single fall over two days of intense state competition. That flawless performance crowned him the IHSA All-Around State Champion, bringing the "ultimate state title" back to Willowbrook as the school's first All-Around Champion since Neil Schmitt in 1964. Sousa capped off his monumental final high school appearance by adding four additional state medals to his collection, placing 3rd in both the High Bar and Vault, and taking 5th in the Pommel Horse and Still Rings. Through his exceptional record-setting achievements, consistency under pressure, and championship legacy, Adam Sousa earned his rightful induction into the Willowbrook Athletic Hall of Fame.

Andy Isaacson has served as a dedicated leader, educator, and coach at Willowbrook High School since 1981, building a multi-decadal legacy across several athletic programs. Best known for his leadership in gymnastics, Coach Isaacson (affectionately known as Coach I) served as the Head Girls Gymnastics Coach from 1981 to 1992—accumulating a dual meet record of 79–28–3—and continues as the head coach today, bringing his total program record to 125–50–4. Under his guidance, the Willowbrook Girls Gymnastics team earned two Des Plaines Valley League titles, three IHSA Regional Championships, and posted scores of 140 or higher in nine out of ten seasons, peaking with a program-record team score of 144.10. His teams made history by producing the school’s first-ever IHSA State Finals Qualifier in 1982 and the only IHSA Team State Finals Qualifier to date in 1987. Individual standout athletes under his mentorship include Sheila Roelle (2nd Place Balance Beam in 1986) and Naomi Campbell (All-State in 2023, 2nd Place Balance Beam in 2025, and IHSA Gymnast of the Year in 2026). In recognition of his success, Isaacson has earned 12 West Suburban Conference Gold (WSCG) Coach of the Year awards across boys and girls gymnastics, as well as the 2025 Illinois State Girls Gymnastics Coach of the Year award.

In addition to his impact on the girls’ program, Coach Isaacson established a dominant standard in Willowbrook Boys Gymnastics. Serving as Head Coach from 1997 to 2007 and returning as the current head coach, he guided the team to four WSCG Conference Championships in 2016, 2020, 2023, and 2024, earning back-to-back WSCG Boys Gymnastics Coach of the Year honors in 2023 and 2024. Over his tenure, the boys’ program has produced 33 IHSA State Qualifiers, seven All-State gymnasts, and four IHSA State Champions: Rob Janata (Parallel Bars & High Bar), Nico Winstead (High Bar), Adam Sousa (All-Around), and Jae Newman (High Bar). Furthermore, standout gymnast David Wright (Hai Nguyen Ly) finished second in the statewide vote for Senior Gymnast of the Year. Isaacson’s coaching versatility extended across the athletic department, where he led the Willowbrook Girls Cross Country team to a WSCG Conference Championship in 1992, served as the Football Strength & Conditioning Coach, coached Boys JV Basketball, and even displayed school spirit by performing as “Willy the Warrior” for many years.

Before his illustrious coaching career at Willowbrook, Andy Isaacson was a distinguished collegiate athlete at Illinois State University, where he was a 3-time NCAA Division I All-American Gymnast and a 2-time recipient of the Horton Award (MVP of ISU Gymnastics). His athletic achievements led to his induction into the Illinois State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Beyond the gym, Isaacson has been widely recognized for excellence in education and service to his community, receiving the Disney Teacher of the Year award, the Chicago Bears Heroes in the Classroom Award, two District 88 Achievement Awards (1991 & 2000), and a Golden Apple Award nomination.

2019 Football Team

State Tournament Final Four

The 2019 Willowbrook High School Football Team delivered one of the most dominant and memorable campaigns in program history under the guidance of Head Coach Nick Hildreth and his coaching staff. Capping off their year with an 11-2 record, the Warriors tied the school record for single-season victories, set the record for total games played in a season, set the school record for playoff wins in a single season, and solidified their senior class as the winningest group to ever pass through the program. The Warriors remarkable campaign featured a championship run through the West Suburban Conference Gold division and an impressive postseason march all the way to the IHSA Class 7A State Semi-Finals. Along the way, the Warriors captured widespread statewide recognition, finishing the regular season ranked 4th in the AP Class 7A Poll, 2nd in the Daily Herald Top 20, 1st overall in DuPage County, 3rd in the EFT 7A Poll, 5th in MaxPreps 7A, 7th in the NBC Preps Poll, 7th in the Edgy Tim Chicagoland Top 30, 8th in the Friday Night Drive Power Rankings, and 9th in the Chicago Sun-Times Super 25.

The team's on-field success was driven by a historic, high-powered offense led by senior quarterback Sammy Tumilty, who served on the team's Leadership Council and was named the team MVP. Tumilty put together a storied season, earning IHSFCA All-State, Edgy Tim All-State, News Gazette All-State Special Mention, WSC Gold Most Valuable Player, the Red Grange Award for DuPage County Most Valuable Player, and Suburban Life Media Player of the Year. By the conclusion of his high school career, Tumilty set school records for career passing touchdowns, career total offense, single-season total offense, and career starts. He was flanked by elite playmakers Deandre Holliday and Everett Stubblefield, who were named WSC Gold Co-Offensive Most Valuable Players. Holliday set school records for career receiving touchdowns and career starts, while Stubblefield earned IHSFCA All-State Honorable Mention.

Willowbrook's frontline dominance was spearheaded by WSC Gold Most Valuable Lineman Ryan Ranieri, who anchored a line that set the foundation for the offense's explosive output. In total, 11 Warriors earned West Suburban Conference Gold All-Conference honors: Sammy Tumilty, Deandre Holliday, Everett Stubblefield, Ryan Ranieri, Brian Dilger, Travis Moore, Enrique Cruz, Elijah Brockie, Mohammad Ayesh, Nick Mabutas, and Josh Brown. Additional postseason honors were awarded across the roster, including Daily Herald All-Area selections (Tumilty, Holliday, Stubblefield, Ranieri), Daily Herald All-Area Honorable Mentions (Ayesh, Brown, Brockie), Suburban Life Media All-Area choices (Tumilty, Stubblefield), and Friday Night Drive All-State 2nd Team honors (Tumilty, Stubblefield). Individual single-game standouts were also recognized throughout the autumn, including Tumilty's Week 7 Daily Herald Offensive Player of the Week performance, Holliday's Week 6 Suburban Life Media Player of the Week title, and running back Ta'Vion Geanes earning Friday Night Drive Week 10 MVP honors.

Beyond their physical execution on the field, the 2019 team exemplified academic achievement and leadership. The program's Leadership Council—comprising Tumilty, Anthony Yannotti, Holliday, Dilger, Sergio Ayala, Ranieri, Moore, Brockie, T.J. Gregory, Kevin Fitzgerald, Ayesh, and Tyler Raya—helped steer the team through its record-setting schedule. In the classroom, Tumilty, Yannotti, Alessio Battaglia, and Tyler Piehl-Haymes earned WSC Academic All-Conference recognition, while Tumilty, Ayesh, Mabutas, and Brockie were selected to the IHSFCA Academic All-State Team. Tumilty was further honored nationally with the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Supported by a dedicated 19-player senior class—including Deandre Holliday, Anthony Yannotti, Everett Stubblefield, Alessio Battaglia, Ta'Vion Geanes, Kevin Fitzgerald, Zach Smith, T.J. Gregory, Elkin Wells, Tyler Piehl-Haymes, Cameron Heppner, Chris Vazquez, Travis Moore, Ryan Ranieri, John Peterson, Brian Dilger, Michael Navarro, Carlos Hernandez, and Sammy Tumilty—the 2019 squad established a benchmark of excellence for future generations of Willowbrook Football.
