

Connect your topic to a World History Assignment

Directions: With your topics that you have brainstormed, try to connect four of your topics to the World History Assignments. This is a difficult step but one that will help you to write a great research question. Read through the description of each of the assignments carefully to see how and why your topic connects to that particular assignment.

Topic	Which framework does it best connect to?	Why and which SS skills?
