Addison Trail boys soccer team on a roll

Blazers take PepsiCo Showdown Gatorade bracket title

By Mike Miazga
CORRESPONDENT

The wins continue to pile up for the Addison Trail boys soccer team. Through late last week the Blazers were 13-1 overall and 3-1 in West Suburban Conference Gold Division play.

In recent action, the Blazers recorded a 5-1 win over District 88 neighbor Willowbrook.

Addison Trail also scored a 5-1 victory over Crystal Lake South to win the PepsiCo Showdown 16-team Gatorade bracket title.

The team also downed Glenbard West (2-0) and Proviso East (8-0) in other recent games.

Through late last week the Blazers were on an eight-game winning streak.

Enrique Luna was leading the team in scoring with 20 goals and six assists. Jonathan Hernandez had seven goals and eight assists, while Tom Cania had seven goals and five assists.

"The team is coming together as a group," said Addison Trail coach Ryan Dini. "We have improved our midfield where we have many weapons who start and come off the bench. Our team defense has been phenomenal."

Addison Trail has scored 54 goals in 14 games and has surrendered only 12 goals.

"We have a lot of different players scoring goals for us, which is huge," said Dini. "Our last two games we had seven different guys score for us. When you are getting contributions from all your starters and subs, things definitely are going great. I like how we have been challenging teams in the air and transitioning from defense to offense."

Depth also has helped the Blazers on defense.

"Our defense has been solid," said Dini. "We have seven defenders contributing in our games. We play with four defenders so it is nice to have multiple options in the back. Our guys take pride in shut-outs and we have eight of them this season."

Helping on the defensive front has been the goalkeeping tandem of juniors Jacob Grygo and Jean Avila.

"Both goalies have been stellar in the net," said Dini. "We rotate them all the time. Jacob and Jean have flourished in competing against each other in practice and are continuing to make each other better."

While the team was sitting at 13-1 record-wise, Dini stressed there still are improvements that can be made.

"We need to get better at our set plays," he said. "We were executing them early in the season and were making teams pay. The last couple weeks we have been a bit unorganized and have not had guys in the right spots. We have worked a lot on this over the past week so we hope to see some good results over the rest of the season. We practice these a lot and need to take advantage of them in conference play and in the playoffs."

Dini also lauded the play of junior midfielder Martin Juarez. "Martin has three goals in his last two games," Dini said late last week.

"He also has three assists over the past two games. He has gone from a JV player to start the year to a varsity starter at this point. Martin has stepped up with his shooting ability and first touch."

Addison Trail faced Leyden earlier this week in a WSC Gold game, and hosts Proviso East Saturday at noon for senior day.

"We are having a great year," said Dini. "I know we can get even better over the next couple weeks. If our guys come to play every day like we have we will be a scary team once the playoffs start."

Addison Trail earned the No. 3 sectional seed for postseason play in a 19-team bracket.

Fenton football team back to .500 after win over St. Edward

Willowbrook football team moves closer to being playoff eligible

By Mike Miazga
CORRESPONDENT

After an 0-2 start, the Fenton football team has turned things around.

The Bison recorded a 52-50 Metro Suburban Conference Blue Division victory over Elgin St. Edward in Week 6 action in Bensenville.

The win moved Fenton to 3-3 overall and 1-1 in MSC Blue play. Fenton has won three of its last four games and has scored 40 or more points in two of its last three contests.

Fenton hits the road in weeks 7 and 8. This Friday, the Bison head to Riverside to face Riverside-Brookfield in a MSC Blue game. R-B is 4-2. Fenton then plays at Wheaton Academy (4-2) in Week 8.

Willowbrook football

The Willowbrook football team moved one step closer to a playoff berth after a 49-20 win over Morton in West Suburban Conference Gold Division action.

The win put Willowbrook at 4-2 overall and 2-1 in WSC Gold play. The Warriors need five wins to become playoff eligible.

Willowbrook returns to action Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in Maywood against Proviso East. The Warriors also are on the road in Week 8 against Downers Grove South.

Addison Trail football

The Addison Trail football team dropped a 21-0 West Suburban Conference Gold Division game at home to Hinsdale South.

The loss put Addison Trail at 2-4 overall and 1-3 in WSC Gold play. The Blazers have lost three of their last four games.

Addison Trail is on the road in Week 7 Friday against Morton.

Property owner opposes proposal to establish special service area at North Avenue Townhomes

By Chris Fox
LOMBARDIAN-VILLA PARK REVIEW
STAFF REPORTER

The owner of multiple units at the North Avenue Townhomes is expressing her opposition to the Villa Park Village Board's recent proposal to establish a special service area at the townhomes.

The establishment of a special service area would impose a special assessment on property owners of the complex, which includes 18 six-unit buildings. The North Avenue Townhomes are located on the south side of North Avenue, near Villa Park's western border with Lombard.

Anita Lepianka and her three siblings own five of the complex's 18 buildings. Lepianka, who spoke during a public participation segment of the Villa Park Village Board meeting on Sept. 26, said the special service assessment would add an annual charge of about $1,600 to each of the 30 units owned by her family.

"That comes out to about $50,000 a year," said Lepianka during the meeting. "That's to pay for somebody else's landscaping and somebody else's driveway and garbage service."

The special services provided to the area would include the reconstruction of driveways and parking spaces, drainage and landscape improvements, and the construction of a new fence on the south side of the townhomes. The south side of the complex borders single-family homes in Lombard.

The proposed special service assessment of the townhomes calls for a tax rate not to exceed $3 for every $100 of equalized assessed value. Lepianka said her family's 30 units at the complex have an equalized assessed value of $27,000, which is higher than other units in the complex. Each of the complex's units is about 1,200 square feet properties that include three bedrooms and a basement.

"This isn't a joke," stated Lepianka of the village's plan to impose a special service area at the complex. "Once Villa Park starts doing this at one part of the neighborhood, they can do it to all the rest of the neighborhood. They're just going to learn how to do it, and do it all over town, for whatever project they want."

There will be a public hearing about the village board's proposal at Villa Park Village Hall on Monday, Oct. 10. The hearing will begin at 6 p.m. The hearing will include the consideration of the issuance of up to $1.6 million in bonds to pay for the special services in the area. The bonds would be retired over a period of up to 20 years with funds generated by the assessment.

Preventing the establishment of the special services area will require a petition signed by at least 51 percent of the registered voters who live in the townhomes, as well as a petition signed by at least 51 percent of the complex's property owners. That petition would have to be filed within 60 days of the Oct. 10 public hearing.

Lepianka said that her family is only able to provide one signature to the petition to property owners despite owning more than 25 percent of the units in the entire complex. Lepianka, who spoke during both of the village board's meetings in September, said during the Sept. 12 meeting she would pursue litigation to oppose the proposal.

"And my biggest, biggest objection to all of this is it's for the benefit of private owners," Lepianka said at the Sept. 26 meeting. "This is all private property. None of it is public property."

The Villa Park Village Board recently approved a proposal to establish a special service area at the North Avenue Townhomes, which are located on the south side of North Avenue on the west side of the village. The proposed special service assessment would impose a new tax on property owners at the complex, which includes 18 buildings. Each building has six units. Anita Lepianka, whose family owns five of the complex's buildings, said the special service assessment will cost her family nearly $50,000 per year in new taxes. There will be a public hearing about the proposed special assessment on Monday, Oct. 10. The hearing will begin at 6 p.m. at Villa Park Village Hall. The photo shows a portion of one of the five buildings owned by the Lepiankas. The building features a newly installed railing and concrete stoop.

Willowbrook honors District 88's Best for September

Willowbrook High School senior Mustafa Ali (left) was named his school's recipient of the District 88's Best award for September. Ali, who is pictured with Willowbrook Principal Dan Krause, was recognized during the District 88 Board of Education meeting on Sept. 26. The district's board of education and administration created the 88's Best monthly award to honor students who reach their personal best in various areas. The award recognizes nine students at each of the district's two schools (Willowbrook and Addison Trail high schools) each school year. Ali pursues the most rigorous academic courses available at Willowbrook. When he graduates, he will have completed 14 Advanced Placement (AP) college-level courses. Ali, who has been named to the Willowbrook Distinction Honor Roll each semester of his high school career, is an Illinois State Scholar. He's also been recognized as an AP Scholar with Distinction. Ali is a member of the Math Honor Society and the World Language Honor Society. He's also a member of Willowbrook's social studies honor society—Civitas. Beyond the classroom, Ali is an active member of Business Professionals of America (BPA), as well as his school's Science Olympiad, Econ Challenge and Scholastic Bowl teams. Additionally, Ali serves as the president of Willowbrook's Muslim Student Association. Ali plans to attend the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He intends to study industrial design and computer science.

Fire Department holds open house on Oct. 15

The Villa Park Fire Department invites residents to attend its annual open house on Saturday, Oct. 15. The open house will take place from noon to 3 p.m. at Fire Station No. 81, located at 1440 S. Ardmore Ave. Parking will be available at the U.S. Post Office across the street from the station.

The open house gives children and adults a chance to visit the station and take an up-close look at some of the fire department's vehicles and equipment. Children will be able to use a real fire hose, wear kid-sized firefighting gear and meet Sparky the Fire Dog. The open house will include fire safety puppet shows, as well as live fire demonstration. The fire demonstration will begin at 2:30 p.m.

The open house takes place during Fire Prevention Week, which dates back to the 1920s. The week is recognized in early October to commemorate the Great Chicago Fire, which began on Oct. 8, 1871. For more information about the open house, call the Villa Park Fire Department at 630-833-5350.

Local 4-H members earn awards

Nearly 3,400 4-H exhibits from across Illinois were judged and displayed during the Illinois State Fair, including those of more than 80 DuPage and Kane County 4-H members. They earned the right to exhibit by being selected in the top of their division at their county 4-H Show earlier this summer.

All members receive an Award of Excellence for being selected to participate at the state fair level. Of those, about 25 percent statewide received the added honor of earning "Superior Awards," the Illinois State Fair's highest award. More than half of the local youth exhibiting at the State Fair received Superior ratings.

During the 4-H conference judging at the state fair, youth receive individual time with professionals in their specific project area. 4-H members then share their knowledge and skills gained in the project, and judges offer constructive critique, suggestions for improvement, and praise.

"Conference judging allows youth to demonstrate their mastery beyond just what the exhibit may show," said Judy Mae Bingham, University of Illinois Extension 4-H Media and Communications specialist. "The final awards are based both on the execution of the project work and the interview process."

4-H project categories range from citizenship to welding, and explore areas of art, science, communication and more. Local 4-H members earning Superior Awards include Adam Schmidt of Villa Park, Passport to the World Club; and Amina Schmidt, Passport to the World Club. Local 4-H members receiving Awards of Excellence awards include Eliyah Stefanski, Villa Park, Visual Arts-Metal.

Village board approves new charge adding $9 to residents' monthly water bills

By Chris Fox
LOMBARDIAN-VILLA PARK REVIEW
STAFF REPORTER

The Villa Park Village Board voted unanimously during its Sept. 26 meeting to assess the final reading of an ordinance that will add $9 to residents' monthly water bills. The new charge will take effect Jan. 1, 2017.

Board members discussed the proposal to assess the new fees at their Sept. 12 meeting. They voted unanimously at that meeting to advance the proposal to the formal agenda.

The new $9 flat fee on residential customers includes a $3 monthly charge for combined sewer separation and a $6 monthly charge for storm water management.

The new ordinance applies a new flat fee of $18 ($6 for combined sewer separation and $12 for storm water management) for commercial and industrial customers, as well as accounts for residential multi-family units.

The money generated from the new charges will be used to pay for underground work associated with road projects throughout the village. The underground work includes the installation of sewers and water mains.

Raising money to pay for underground projects has been a topic of discussion at several recent board meetings. Villa Park Village Manager Rich Keehner has noted during the discussions that the money related to the voter-approved referendum of November 2014 can only be used for road repairs and cannot be directed toward related underground work.

Villa Park voters approved the referendum nearly two years ago to authorize the village to borrow up to $23 million to pay for road repairs.

According to Keehner, there are about 6,700 water accounts in the village. Villa Park Trustee Albert Bulthuis stated during the Sept. 12 meeting that the new water fees would generate about $750,000 in annual revenue.

Shortly before the vote to approve the ordinance at the Sept. 26 meeting, Trustee Robert Taglia asked about applying an exemption for Villa Park's senior residents who are below the poverty line.

Keehner responded that while the village does not have the financial records of Villa Park households, it could make modifications to the ordinance in the future. Taglia suggested that Keehner could review each request for a discount or waiver on a case-by-case basis.

ty. So you're asking one person, us, namely, to pay for repairs for other owners who have neglected to repair their properties.

Lepianka said a majority of the other property owners at the complex rent out their units. She said after the meeting that each of the 13 buildings that aren't owned by her family includes one or two owners who live at the complex.

"They're getting rent, collecting money from their tenants," said Lepianka during the Sept. 26 meeting in referring to the majority of property owners at the site.

Following the Sept. 26 meeting, Lepianka noted that her family had its portion of the back alley at the complex repaved last year. Her family has also recently paid for new concrete stoops and railings at the entrances of about half of their properties. The Lepiankas hire a private firm to collect garbage from their tenants. The firm makes three pickups per week.

Lepianka said the village is proposing to repair the entire back alley of the complex at a cost estimated at $600,000 to $800,000.

"We did our portion, which is about 30 percent [of the entire alley], for about $36,000," she said. "I could even accept up to $250,000 if they put drains in, but if our portion was about $36,000, doing the whole alley should cost about $120,000."

"So you're asking me to pay for 40 percent of the burden of those taxes for other people getting income from those properties, and not fixing their properties," said Lepianka. After the meeting, she said that the problems at the complex, including crime and trash collection, would be manageable if the village would provide the services it's currently obligated to provide.

"What I want from the village is for them to do their traditional government function," said Lepianka after the meeting. "That's policing to reduce crime in the area and code enforcement for lack of maintenance of property. Those are traditional government functions. Every community has them. That's why we pay taxes."

If the special service assessment is imposed, Lepianka said the charge will be passed on to tenants.

"The cost has to be offset somehow," she said. "The rents have to go up. There's no other way."

Lepianka said that about two years ago, village staff members asked her to donate one of the family's five units to the village, which would have demolished the building to create open space. She turned down the request.

"The majority of the people who live here are decent, hard-working people," added Lepianka, who said most of the crime in the area was drug-related. "These are not bad people. Why shouldn't these people get appropriate government services?"

Concern over road project

Villa Park Trustee Albert Bulthuis asked about the recently completed resurfacing of Highridge Road during the Sept. 26 village board meeting. The project was completed in August, shortly before the first day of school at Willowbrook High School on Aug. 17. "Is Highridge Road finished?" asked Bulthuis at the meeting. "The ride on there—is that acceptable? It's kind of rough. I don't think we got what we thought we were going to get." Villa Park Public Works Director Vydas Juskelis responded that the project was a federally funded, state-let job. He said the condition of the road has been reported to the Illinois Department of Transportation. "They are mulling over what can be done," Juskelis stated in response to Bulthuis. "We have not heard a response yet." The photo from August shows a westward view of Highridge Road. A federal grant reportedly covered about half of the project's cost, which was estimated at $436,000. Villa Park Village Manager Rich Keehner stated during the summer that the project came in under budget.

The Glenbard East football team picked up its first victory of the 2016 season on Saturday, when it beat East Aurora 14-7 in an Upstate Eight Valley Conference game in Aurora. The evening contest was played on Aurora Christian High School's field, which is serving as the Tomcats' home venue while their own stadium is under renovation.

The Rams and East Aurora were tied at 7-7 midway through the fourth quarter. Glenbard East closed the game by delivering a nearly flawless finish over the game's closing minutes. Junior Jared Rech's interception with 4:30 to play ignited the Rams' winning drive. His interception gave the Rams possession of the ball at their own 27-yard line. Glenbard East scored the go-ahead touchdown less than one minute later. Sophomore quarterback Bret Bushka broke a 27-yard run into the end zone to complete a four-play, 73-yard scoring drive.

The Glenbard East defense, which held the Tomcats scoreless through the game's final three quarters, forced an East Aurora punt on the ensuing drive. The Tomcats had one more desperation drive in the final minute, but they could only move the ball to their own 31-yard line. The game ended on an incomplete East Aurora pass near midfield.

"Our defense was awesome," said Glenbard East coach John Walters after the game, which took place in intermittent drizzle. "Our guys on defense have been grinding all year long. It was nice to see them come out and play their tails off tonight."

The Rams improved to 1-5 overall and 1-2 in conference play. East Aurora slipped to 1-5 overall and 0-3 in the conference standings.

"It feels great," added Walters in describing the Rams' first win of the season. "More than anything, I'm happy for these guys. Our players have come to work every day. They've come to practice and they've continued to grind. They've stayed together. It was nice to get out of here with a win."

Both teams produced touchdown drives in the first quarter. East Aurora took an early lead after scoring on its first possession of the night. The Tomcats scored on their third offensive play of the game—a 57-yard touchdown run. The extra-point kick gave East Aurora a 7-0 lead with about seven minutes remaining in the opening period.

Glenbard East sophomore Jeremy Johnson returned the ensuing kickoff 30 yards to his team's 42-yard line. The Rams then drove 58 yards for a score—a 36-yard touchdown pass from Bushka to junior Matt Shockey. Senior Justin Murphy converted the extra-point kick to tie the score at 7-7 with 4:36 to play in the first quarter.

The Rams squandered a few opportunities during the rest of the first half. Senior Zach Netchin intercepted an East Aurora pass late in the first period, but the Rams then committed a turnover of their own, coughing up a fumble less than one minute later. Early in the second quarter, Glenbard East drove inside the Tomcats' 10-yard line. The drive ended on an incomplete fourth-and-three pass from the East Aurora 6-yard line. Glenbard East missed a 36-yard field goal kick with less than one minute to play in the first half.

The Rams turned the ball over on a fumble midway through the second half. East Aurora pounced on the loose ball, recovering it at its own 31-yard line.

The Tomcats turned in a defensive stand with about seven minutes left in the game when they prevented the Rams from gaining a first down on a fourth-and-two run. The stop gave East Aurora the ball at its own 43-yard line.

The Tomcats drove into Glenbard East territory before Rech made the interception, which he returned about 10 yards to his team's 40-yard line. A penalty on Rech's return moved the ball back to the Rams' 27-yard line.

Bushka lobbed a 31-yard pass to junior Keonta Nixon on the first play of Glenbard East's fourth-quarter scoring drive. Bushka threw an incomplete pass on the next play. Senior Scott Szabo then broke a 15-yard run to the Tomcats' 27-yard line. Bushka produced his scoring burst on the next play, breaking to his right and sprinting across the goal line. Murphy added the extra-point kick to boost Glenbard East's lead to 14-7 with 3:37 to play.

East Aurora began its next drive at its own 11-yard line after Glenbard East's special teams unit made a quick tackle on the ensuing kickoff. The Tomcats punted the ball away with under two minutes to play. Glenbard

The Rams and Tomcats were tied at 7-7 when Rech made the interception with less than five minutes to play in the game. Glenbard East's offense delivered a scoring drive after the interception. The Rams defeated East Aurora 14-7 to earn their first victory of the season.

East's offense then ran about one minute off the clock before Rech scooped up a low snap and punted the ball to the Tomcats' 15-yard line with under 50 seconds left in the game. East Aurora picked up one first down on its final drive before heaving an incomplete pass toward midfield on the final play.

"You look at those last five minutes and see what we're capable of—offensively, defensively and on special teams," said Walters. "That's what we're looking to get out of our guys for 48 minutes."

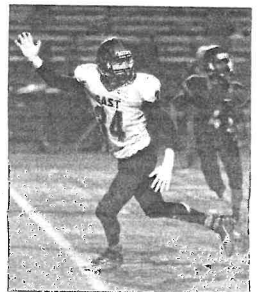

Bushka gained 94 yards on 16 rushing attempts. Szabo ran for 86 yards on 20 carries. Bushka completed 10 of 16 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown. Johnson grabbed six receptions for 78 yards, while Shockey provided three catches for 60 yards.

The Glenbard East offense amassed 349 total yards of offense. The Rams limited East Aurora to 182 offensive yards—111 rushing yards and 71 passing yards.

Glenbard East's season continues with this Friday's non-conference game at Jacobs High School in Algonquin. The Golden Eagles will enter the battle with a 3-3 record. They improved to 3-3 with last week's 43-14 win over Crystal Lake Central.

The Rams will finish their season with two conference games—an Oct. 14 home contest against West Chicago and an Oct. 21 meeting at Bartlett.

Warriors move to 4-2 following 49-20 rout of Morton

The Willowbrook football team didn't need much time to pile up the points against Morton in Friday's West Suburban Gold Conference matchup in Villa Park. The Warriors scored six touchdowns in the first half on their way to a 49-20 victory.

Willowbrook, which improved to 4-2 overall and 2-1 in the conference, held a 42-6 halftime lead. The Warriors scored early in the third quarter to increase their lead to 49-6 and trigger a running clock for the rest of the game. The second half of an IHSA game is played with a running clock when a team builds a lead of at least 40 points.

Senior quarterback M.J. Ranieri fired four touchdown passes to four different receivers in the first half. His 28-yard scoring pass to junior Sikaner Zafar gave the Warriors a 6-0 lead with 8:06 left in the first quarter. Ranieri completed a short third-down pass to senior Khalif Copeland later in the period. Copeland broke into the open field and raced down the sideline for a 55-yard touchdown reception. Senior Mike Dembowski added the extra-point kick to give the Warriors a 14-0 lead with 3:13 to play in the opening period.

Morton, which dropped to 1-5 overall and 1-2 in the conference, scored on a 78-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter to cut the Warriors' lead to 14-6. Willowbrook responded with Ranieri's 78-yard touchdown pass to senior Jonathan Kelso, who turned a short pass play into a long gain.

The Warriors tried and recovered an onside kick after Kelso's touchdown. Junior Nick Sabatino made the recovery for the Warriors. Moments later, junior running back Jack Jensen broke a 13-yard touchdown run. The extra-point kick gave the Warriors a 28-6 advantage with 9:30 left in the first half.

Junior Chris Diaz scored Willowbrook's fifth touchdown of the first half in the middle of the second period when he broke a 32-yard run into the end zone. Shortly after Diaz crossed the goal line, junior defensive back Jacob Entwistle intercepted a Morton pass and made a long return to the Mustangs' 22-yard line. A short time later, Ranieri lobbed a 25-yard touchdown pass to Dembowski, who made a diving catch in the back of the end zone. Junior Betty-Ann Garrett kicked the extra point to raise the Warriors' lead to 42-6 with 3:04 remaining in the first half.

Copeland intercepted a Morton pass near midfield early in the third quarter. Copeland ran the ball back to the Mustangs' 23-yard line. Diaz scored on a 1-yard touchdown run a few plays later. Garrett kicked the extra point to raise the lead to 49-6 with 9:27 left in the third period.

"We have a bunch of receivers; it's not like there's one guy to worry about," said Ranieri after the victory, which gave the Warriors two straight wins since their 30-27 loss to Hinsdale South on Sept. 16. Ranieri said that loss lit a fire under the Warriors.

"It was hard, but it motivated us," said Ranieri of the loss to the Hornets. "That next week of practice was great. We came out and worked hard."

"The bottom line was, we just wanted to get to 4-2," said Dembowski. "Everyone did their job. There's always room for improvement. We can always do things better. We're going to try to work to get to 5-2 next week."

The Warriors will travel to Maywood for this Saturday's conference game at Proviso East (0-6 overall, 0-3 conference). Willowbrook will close out the regular season with two more conference games—an Oct. 14 battle at Downers Grove South and an Oct. 21 home contest against Leyden.

The Warriors need to win two of their final regular-season games to clinch an IHSA playoff berth.

"We've got to continue to improve," said Willowbrook coach Nick Hildreth. "The biggest focus is ourselves. We feel like in each of our losses we beat ourselves. Our guys have goals in front of them that they can still accomplish. The next step now is getting to 5-2."

Broncos improve to 3-3 with convincing win at De La Salle

The Montini football team evened its record at 3-3 with Friday's 34-6 victory over De La Salle Institute in Chicago. The Broncos held a 21-0 halftime lead over the previously unbeaten Meteors, who entered the game with a 5-0 record.

"That was our best game of the year," said Montini coach Chris Andriano. "We played very well. I was expecting a closer game. I was very pleased with our effort."

The Broncos forced five De La Salle turnovers—three interceptions and two fumbles. Junior Rian O'Connor made two of the interceptions, one of which stopped a promising De La Salle in the first half. Senior Brendan Rauhen's interception and return of about 40 yards set up one of Montini's first-half touchdowns.

Senior Will Smith provided two touchdown runs in the opening half. His 5-yard scoring run in the first quarter gave the Broncos a 6-0 lead. Smith added an 18-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to increase the lead to 20-0. Junior Jake Karczewski delivered a 5-yard touchdown run earlier in the second quarter to help Montini to a 13-0 lead.

De La Salle scored early in the second half to cut Montini's lead to 21-6. The Broncos rebuilt their lead with a 12-yard touchdown run by junior Nick Orlando later in the third quarter. Junior quarterback Matt Morrissey connected with junior Matt Quaglia on a 67-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter for the team's fifth touchdown of the night.

Morrissey completed six of eight pass attempts for 121 yards. Smith ran for a team-leading 73 yards on 15 carries. Orlando gained 64 rushing yards on eight carries.

Montini needs to win at least two of its last three games of the regular season to qualify for the IHSA playoffs for the 24th consecutive year. The Broncos will play DePaul College Prep (2-4) this Friday afternoon in Chicago. Montini will complete its regular season with home games against Mt. Carmel (on Oct. 14) and St. Francis (on Oct. 21).

Rams pull away to win three-game battle with the Warriors

Glenbard East and Willowbrook traded blows in last week's girls volleyball match in Villa Park. The visiting Rams rallied from an early deficit to win the opening game. The Warriors pulled out an exciting second game to even the match. Glenbard East caught fire at the start of the decisive third game, rolling to a 7-0 lead on its way to a 25-22, 22-25, 25-10 victory.

The Rams improved their overall record to 15-11 with the Sept. 29 victory. Willowbrook's season record dropped to 11-9.

The Warriors built an 11-6 lead in the opening match, but Glenbard East rallied to tie the battle at 17-17. The teams were tied at 22-22 before the Rams closed out the game by winning three straight points.

Willowbrook built another lead in the second game, racing out to a 13-7 lead. The Rams unleashed another rally, pulling to a 14-14 tie. As in the first game, the two teams played to a 22-22 tie in the second game. While Glenbard East won the final three points of the first game, Willowbrook reeled off three straight points to capture the second game.

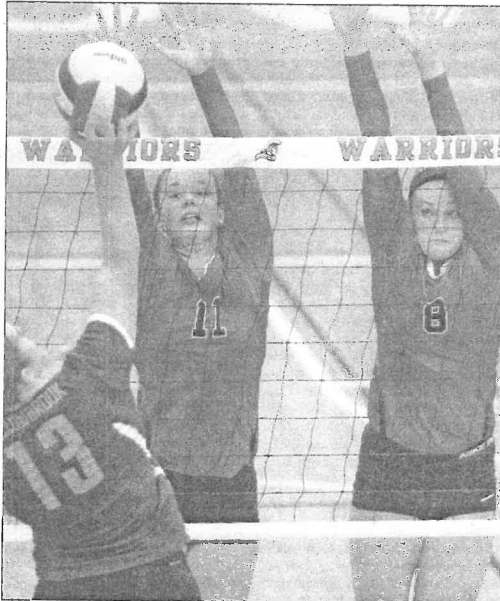

The third game belonged to Glenbard East, which won the first seven points and eventually built a 15-2 lead.

"Sometimes you start a little slow, but like I told the girls, I'd rather finish strong," said Glenbard East coach Marci Maier of the Rams' slow starts in the first two games. "If we have to start a little slow, I'd rather have it in momentum at the beginning of the game versus the end."

Maier noted junior Erin Cluskey's strong play as a key to Glenbard East's great start in the third game.

"She had three key plays right at the beginning of the game to set the tone, and we never looked back," said Maier of Cluskey.

Sophomore Allison Hamaker pounded 19 kills and made three blocks for the Rams. Senior Mackenzie Bell handed out 19 assists. Senior Meghan Wozniak contributed 16 assists, nine digs and six kills. Junior

The Rams and Warriors split the first two games of the battle. Glenbard East dominated the third game on its way to a 25-22, 22-25, 25-10 win in the Sept. 29 match.

Ellen Kirsh had 17 digs, while junior Emily Denton provided 13 digs and three service aces. Sophomore Sarah Elliott connected for seven kills. Cluskey and senior Kate Tadda had five and three blocks, respectively.

"I think we need to condition a little bit more for matches like this," said Willowbrook coach Sue Bower after the match. "This was probably one of the most physically challenging matches that we've played."

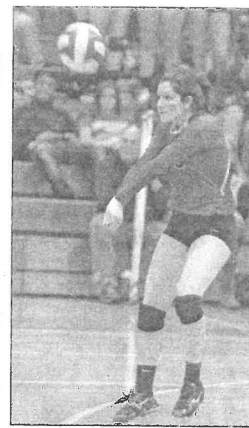

While disappointed with the final score, Bower was proud of the Warriors' effort.

"We were doing a great job chasing that ball down," she said. "I'm very happy with what we did. These girls play their hearts out. They do a great job."

Senior Olivia Pennebaker delivered eight kills and six digs for the Warriors. Pennebaker also turned in an outstanding play late in the second game, keeping the ball in play from near the back wall by launching it high over her head across the net.
