Glenbard West stays just ahead of Downers N

BY ORRIN SCHWARZ oschwarz@dailyherald.com

Downer's Grove North kept trying. Glenbard West kept saying no.

Glenbard West took the lead in Tuesday night's West Suburban Silver girls basketball game to start the second quarter, and though Downers Grove North almost came back a couple of times against the Hilltoppers, they never could break through. The Hilltoppers won 48-41 in

Downers Grove. "We have been working

Girls basketball

all week on being com-posed and playing for each other and as a team," Hill-toppers senior guard Sammy Harris said. "I thought that the entire game we really worked on that and every time that they would come close and make a run, we just kind of countered that by lifting each other up and making each other know that one possession is not going to kill us for them and we have the confidence to pull through."

The Hilltoppers led 22-13 late in the second quarter after junior Nicki Adamski converted a three-point play. But the Trojans (4-7, 2-3) scored the final 4 points of the first half, then the first 4 of the second half to pull within a point,

The Hilltoppers pulled away again with a pair of Taylor Huff baskets, a Jami-yah Thomas basket off a Harris assist and a pair of Thomas free throws to lead 1no... 30-21. "We're not tough Trojans coach enough,"

BY ANDY MARTINEZ Daily Herald Correspondent

For Katelyn McCann and the Willowbrook girls basketball team, the West Suburban Gold rivalry with Addison Trail digs deeper than just "A lot of them we used to play back in eighth grade when we were in middle school," the junior guard said. "So we've been playing against each other for like four years now. We know each other and we know how each

So claiming a 61-42 win over

"This is one of the most fun

the Blazers is a bit sweeter for McCann and the Warriors.

games we have all season, our rivals," McCann said. "It's just one of those games we want to win. We come out and play hard and that's what we want league supremacy.

other play."

Stephan Bolt said. "We're not mentally tough enough. We make good spurts and then we give it all back in a hurry because we can't sustain right now. Not right now. We've gotten better but we're not good enough yet. There's still a lot of room for improvement."

Again the Trojans cut into the Hilltoppers' lead, turn-ing a 10-point deficit into a 2-point deficit with a chance to tie. Again the Hilltoppers responded. Senior guard Cameron Kruse ended the Trojans' 8-0 run with a free throw, and Thomas scored another basket. A Huff putback made it 40-33, and the Trojans never threatened again.

Willowbrook savors sweet triump

Hilltoppers junior guard Katelyn Heller led all scor-ers with 20 points, add-5 rebounds and ing Thomas finished with a dozen points and 8 rebounds, and Huff had 8 points and 5 rebounds.

"Katelyn did great, and she's the type of kid that she works hard all the time, Hilltoppers coach Kristi Faulkner said. "In practice she always wants to win every sprint. She always wants to stay after and get extra shots up. She puts in a lot of hard work and she's a great teammate. It's fun to see a kid who works so hard do well."

The victory moves the Hilltoppers to 7-3 overall, 3-1 in the Silver.

"It's a really big win. It keeps us going because we had a 1-point loss to (Lyons Twp.) in our first conference game, but we bounced back with a couple of wins," Har-

MARK BLACK/mblack@dailyherald.com
Neuqua Valley's Jonathan Tan (44) takes a shot after getting by Wheaton North's Drew Arbogast (30) and Jacob Schauer (20) during Tuesday's Falcons victory in Wheaton.

Notice

Boys basketball

Tüesday's results

BLENBARD WEST BIL PLAINFIFLD CENTRAL 85

Particular Canada — Buest-Roy 10 0.2 Spormant of 1.4 Spormant

G CATHOLIC PREP 43, FENTON 27

HAPERVILLE NORTH 82, JOLIET WEST 58

College commitments

The following DuPage County high school athletes committed to play in college:

Rvan Laurenzo Naperville Grand Valley State University Football

LAKE PARK ST. LIBERTYVILLE 47. 15 ($ 3) Libertyville — Bair 0 0-0 0; Lemb 3 0-1 6; Speylong 3 1-2 7;

Girls basketball

Willowbrook (2-7, 1-3) did that by forcing Addison Trail into mistake after mistake.

The Blazers committed 35 turnovers, including 11 in the first quarter.

"We know them very well," Willowbrook coach Terry Har-rell said. "What we did is look at some of the tendencies they have and we played towards those tendencies.

But for all the mistakes Addison Trail (3-5, 0-4) committed, the Blazers never were out of striking distance. The Blazers went into the locker room at halftime with some hope, only trailing 23-19, even after committing 19 first half turnovers.

"I definitely had confidence," Blazers senior Nicci Scorza said.

But Willowbrook amped up the intensity on offense coming out of halftime.

After a Serena Gilliam layup made it 23-21 just 13 seconds into the half, the Warriors rattled off a 14-2 run. In that run Willowbrook llmited Addison Trail to just 1 field goal, forced 5 turnovers and limited the Blazers to 1-of-7 shooting.

"It was a huge third quar-ter for us," Willowbrook senior point guard Jayla Smith said.

Coupled with the War-riors strong defense, Smith orchestrated a potent offensive attack, as the Warriors doubled their scoring output in one quarter. Smith scored just 6 points but dished out 8 assists, had 8 rebounds and snatched 6 steals.

"My main focus was pushing the ball and looking for my teammates," Smith said.
McCann had a hot hand in the third quarter, too. McCann had 14 of her game-high 22 points in the quarter. "We came out in the third quarter and just went to town and everybody played really well," McCann said, "It felt really good to have that type of third quarter.

For Addison Trail, it feels like the same story, just a different opponent.

"We have a lot of unforced turnovers," Addison Trail coach Rob Schader said. "That's really what's hurt-ing us thus far in the season. We're averaging over 30 turnovers a game."

And the Blazers will look for answers to right their mistakes.

"It's definitely frustrating, being a senior and a captain, Scorza said. "We have to make a change for the rest of the season if we want to see different outcomes.

Naperville North raises its voice

By KEVIN SCHMIT kschmit@dailsherald.com to do. Beat them.

On a quiet Tuesday evening Naperville North's boys basketball team made plenty of

The Huskies defied a rel-atively still atmosphere by exploding for an 82-58 nonconference victory over visiting Joliet West.

Naperville North stayed unbeaten at 7-0, leading wire-to-wire after 6-foot-7 senior post Chris Johnson tallied the game's first 5 points. As strong as the Huskies started in the face of Joliet West's pressure defense, nothing compared to the 17-0 blitz that opened the second quarter and put the outcome virtually to rest at 38-11. Joliet West (4-4) tried to stem the tide with a pair of timeouts, but to no avail.

Boys basketball

"We knew they were real quick and athletic, so we didn't want to turn the ball said Huskies senior David Kushner. "We were able to limit our turnovers and play through our big guys. We're just trying to keep our focus and play our best."

After Johnson scored 11 points in the first quarter, Kushner scored 8 of his 10 points in the decisive second-quarter run and Welch points.

The Huskies haven't been completely pleased with their starts of late, but Tuesday was Ideal. Naperville North went deep into its bench early and for much of the second half as nine players tallied at least 3 points.

"On a Tuesday night you've got to make energy for yourself, and we try to do that every night," Welch said. "In previous games we haven't really had a great first quarter, so that was kind of the goal for this game. Come out hot, make them call time out or something, and just come out with a bang."
Welch led Naperville North with 18 points while Chris added 10 second-quarter Johnson had 15 points. Each grabbed 7 rebounds. Ryan Laurenzo knocked down a pair of 3-pointers and scored 13 points. Kevin Lang scored > Joliet West senior Michael Smith hit four 3-pointers to lead all scorers with 22 points. Darren Williams scored 10

> "We had a good practice on Monday, and I felt com-fortable today," said Huskies coach Jeff Powers. "We had to practice in the morning, but the kids were focused in the morning practice and that's hard to do."

Follow Kevin on Twitter @kevin schmit

The Great Western Trall starts in Villa Park on the west side of Villa Avenue. The photo shows the recently built arch on Villa Avenue, just north of Pioneer Garden and Feed. The crushed limestone trail follows 12 miles of abandoned railway corridor between Villa Park and West Chicago, Jan Fiola, Villa Park's director of economic development, spearheaded the project to build the arch, which she described as the Gateway to the Great Western Trail.

Village earns budgeting recognition award for the 25th straight year

The Village of Villa Park has received the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for its fiscal Association (GPOA) Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for its inscal year 2017 annual budget. This is the 25th consecutive year that Villa Park has achieved this recognition.

According to GFOA, the award "...represents a significant achievement by the Village, and reflects the commitment of the governing body and staff to meeting the highest principles of governmental budgeting."

The Certificate of Recognition for Budget Presentation was presented to Villa Park Finance Director Kevin Wachtel.

"I commend Kevin and the finance department for their hard work in ensuring our budgeting process always runs smoothly and effectively," stated Villa Park Village President Albert Bulthuis in a release issued by the village. "We are one of only 133 government entities in Illinois—out of over 7,000—to achieve this recognition annually. Additionally, the village annually receives GFOA's Audit award. Only 110 Illinois governments won both ally receives GFOA's Audit award. Only 110 Illinois governments won both awards this past year."

In winning the awards, the Village had to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines for effective budget presentation. These guidelines are designed to assess how well an entity's budget serves as a policy document, financial plan, operations guide, and communications device. Villa Park's budget documents were rated "proficient" in all four of these categories, and within fourteen mandatory criteria within the categories.

There are over 1,600 participants in GFOA's Budget Awards Program. The most recent Budget Award recipients, along with their corresponding budget documents, are posted quarterly at www.gfoa.org. GFOA notes that "...award recipients have pioneered efforts to improve the quality of budgeting and provide an excellent example for other governments throughout geting and provide an excellent example for other governments throughout North America."

New arch marks beginning of the Great Western Trail

The Great Western Irail begins on the west side of Villa Avenue in Villa Park. The Village of Villa Park recently erected an arch—the Gateway to the Great Western Trail.

The arch is located just north of Pioneer Garden and Feed; 118 S.

"When I first started working in Villa Park four years ago, I couldn't find the beginning of the Great Western Trail that everyone told me started right on South Villa Av-enue," said Jan Fiola, Villa Park's director of economic development.
"Once I realized it wasn't the alley next to Pioneer Garden and Feed, I was amazed that Villa Park hadn't celebrated the beginning of this awesome 12-mile recreational trail."

Fjola discussed the issue with Villa Park Village Manager Rich Villa Park Village Manager Rich Keehner, who suggested that she come up with a design and work to build a gateway to the trail. Fi-ola worked with Eagle Scouts to raise money, She also reached out to contractors to volunteer their time. supplies and equipment. Phil Gre-co—owner of the Odeum, Bruce Campbell with PEP Industries and Joe and Julie with Area Equipment were prominent contributors to the project, said Fibla; an ironwork archway were complet-ed in the last month. Benches, garbage cans and bike racks have also been added to the area, which is near five new butterfly way stations that were recently planted along the trail. Another Eagle Scout is completing the priming of the 450-foot wall that will have a mural painted on it next spring.

"This area has been totally transformed and become a major hub and activities and events for Villa Park," said Fiola. "I am proud of the results and how everyone came together to make this project a success

District 45 Foundation announces fundraising totals from first 45Fest nounced that its inaugural 45Fest, which was held in October, netted a total profit of over $37,000, with $20,000 of that total collected prior to the event in the form of sponsor ships and donations. These funds will be put to good use by the Foundation ext spring when grants are awarded. The District 45 Foundation for Excellence is a non-profit organiza-tion that raises funds to support the enrichment of the educational opportunities for the students in District 45. Last spring, seven grants were awarded for the 2017-18 school year and the Foundation provided gen-erous funding for two 21st century learning classrooms.

The seven grants awarded by the foundation included:

Utilizing Technology in Mu-sic—Connect+ Pro headphones will extend the use of music in the Scha-fer School General Music classroom.

You Can Do the Cube-Rubik's Cubes with 40 STEM/STEAM lessons and curriculum will engage Schafer students in solving problems through puzzles.

• Makerspace Club—A Place to Explore, Create and Collaborate—Makerspace Club will meet weekly to expand student creativity problem solving skills in the Maker-space at North School.

· Awesome Author Study of Bruce Hale—Award-winning children's book author Bruce Hale will Skype with Schafer second graders to in crease writing and reading engage-ment. Each student receives a book and authors a book.

 Experiences to develop language and background knowledge-Trips to the Kohl's Children's Museum and the Lincoln Marsh will build background knowledge, vocabulary and hands-on play experiences while incorporating common core standards as well as the next generation science standards for Stevenson School first graders.

Reading-Lunch Bunch-Schafer second-, third- and fourth-grade students will develop a love of reading by having books and fun literacy activities put in their hands to read and then meet at the park for sharing their reads.

• Jefferson Middle School PE

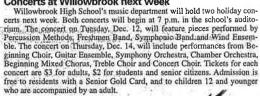

Choice Program/Heart Rate Monitors-The most efficient and up-to-date heart rate monitors, will allow (PE) teachers to implement the "My PE Choice" program, which helps students to lead physically active lifestyles.

District 45 staff members will be invited to apply for the 2018-19 Foundation grants next spring. The grants will be awarded prior to the end of the current school year, so planning can be done over the sum-

The success of 45Fest gives the foundation the opportunity to greatly enrich the education programming in

Villa Park briefs

Willowbrook students' art on display at Funky Java from Dec. 13-20

Artwork created by Willowbrook High School students will be displayed from Dec. 13-20 at The Funky Java Coffee House, 40 S. Villa Ave., Villa Park. An opening reception will be held at Funky Java from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 13.

Police announce Thanksgiving enforcement numbers

The Villa Park Police Department conducted seat belt enforcement from Nov. 17-27 as part of the nationwide "Click It or Ticket" mobilization. Villa Park police joined other state and local law enforcement agencies across Il-linois to issue citations to unbuckled motorists in an effort to reduce traffic fatalities, During the 10-day period, the Villa Park Police Department issued five seat belt citations, 38 cell phone citations and nine speeding citations. Additionally, the department issued 10 uninsured motorist citations and arrested six drivers with suspended or revoked licenses. Police also made one drug-related arrest and issued one citation for illegal transportation of al-cohol. While the "Click It or Ticket" mobilization period has ended, police will continue to look for unbuckled motorists. "If you or your passengers are caught not wearing a seat belt, you will be cited for the violation," said Villa Park Police Sgt. James Cihak. The "Click It or Ticket" mobilization was made possible with federal highway safety funds administered by the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Youth theater group performs holiday production Dec. 16-17

holiday production Dec. 16-17

The Saint Genesius Productions youth theater group will perform "The Story of Holly and Ivy" on Saturday, Dec. 16, and Sunday, Dec. 17, at Montini Catholic High School, Saturday's show times are 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday's performance begins at 2 p.m.

Twenty-five students from local Catholic grade schools and religious education programs have joined together to create this holiday performance. "The Story of Holly and Ivy" is about wishing. Ivy, Holly, and Mrs. Jones each have one powerful Christmas wish. Ivy, an orphan, wishes for a real home and sets out in search of the grandmother she's sure she can find. Holly, a doll, wishes for a child to bring her to life. Mrs. Jones wishes more than anythine for a child. Gan all three wishes come true? This festive tale is filled anything for a child. Can all three wishes come true? This festive tale is filled with the warm glow of Christmas spirit. The play has been adapted by Saint Genesius alumna Emily O'Brochta and Saint Genesius Artistic Director Sara Corkery from Rumer Godden's classic children's book by the same name.

Tickets cost $8 and can be purchased at the door, or ordered online at https://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/3172246.

To learn more, visit stgenesiusproductions.com.

Saint Genesius Productions, founded in 2010, was created to bring the experience of professionally produced children's theater to Catholic grade school students throughout DuPage County. This volunteer-run youth theater country provides students (informit histories include grade with a performing arts.) group provides students in fourth through eighth grade with a performing arts education and the opportunity to appear in plays and musicals.

Veterans can get free legal support services

To better serve Illinois heroes, the state has formed the first-ever statewide legal assistance hotline and coordinated network of legal support services for military personnel, veterans and their families.

State Sen. Tom Cullerton (D-Villa Park) is helping spread the word about the Illinois Armed Forces Legal Aid Network (IL-AFLAN) to ensure DuPage County residents take advantage of free legal services.

"Our nation's heroes have served our country with honor and dignity, and it is now our time to ensure they have access to the necessary resources to be successful," Cullerton said. "Our veterans and service men and women should not have to jump through hoops to receive assistance. This one-stop hotline will offer them direct support and point them to attorneys in their area who will provide comprehensive and free legal assistance to give them better access to services and benefits for which they qualify."

The free services will be readily available for military members and families who need assistance with free legal help for urgent family, housing and consumer problems as well as possible discharge-upgrades and benefit appeals.

"Illinois is home to nearly one million veterans and active duty service members. We have a responsibility to protect their rights much like they have fought to protect our rights," said Trish McGill, U.S. Army veteran and chair of the Illinois Access to Civil Justi

Council. "The Illinois Armed Forces Legal Aid Council. The innois Ariner rates began Au Network will help our veterans and service members resolve their legal problems and preserve their health, safety and financial independence." Cullerton advocated for House Bill HB 3933 in 2015, which created the Illinois Access to Civil Justice Council, whose first duty was to create and develop a statewide military personnel and veteran legal assistance network assistance network.

The free hotline number is 855-452-3526 or 855-ILAFLAN. The hotline is staffed by attorneys Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and serves as the starting point to connect to IL-AFLAN's network.
The network will offer legal advice and brief services and then help connect veterans and military members to legal aid providers near their community. Nine organizations across the state have received grants to ovide legal aid services as part of the IL-AFLAN.

While a few other states have veterans legal aid initiatives, Illinois is the largest state to combine a hotline with a legal help provider network.

Cullerton urges local attorneys looking to offer pro bono assistance to contact any of the nine organizations that are part of the network and say that they want to help with IL-AFLAN.

Area residents can visit www.SenatorTomCullerton. com or call his Villa Park Office at 630-903-6662 for more information on IL-AFLAN.

sid of 630-942-7663.

Glenbard East wins one of two home games

Rams bounce back from loss to Oswego East to beat Perspectives

Glenbard East's boys basketball team stopped a two-game losing streak with Friday's 61-46 home win over Chicago's Perspectives Charter School.

Senior James Peterkin scored a team-leading 18 points for the Rams in the victory, which moved the team's overall record to 4-2. Sophomore Alijah Nelson added 13 points, while senior Korvante Davis scored

II points.
The Rams' previous game was a 77-62 home loss to Oswego East on Nov. 29. Davis sank three 3-point shots in the first quarter to help the Rams to a 28-13 lead after eight minutes. Oswego East rallied in the sec-ond quarter to take a 36-34 lead by halftime. The hot-shooting Wolves, who made 11 shots from 3-point range (four apiece in the second and thrid periods and three in the fourth period), increased their lead to 60-45 by the end of the third quarter. The lead hallcomed to 7.75 Jule in 45 by the end of the third quarter. The lead ballooned to 77-52 late in the fourth. The Rams closed the gap with a late run that included 3-point shots by juniors Jake Huisman, Clay Kepuritis and Jackson Rozinsky.

Peterkin finished the night with 21 points, including a pair of 3-point shots. Senior Kenny Adams scored nine points with his three 3-pointers.

The Rams will open the Upstate Eight Valley Conference season with this Friday's game at South Elgin

Warriors fall in overtime The Willowbrook boys basketball team opened its West Suburban Gold Conference season with Friday night's 74-72, overtime loss at Proviso East. The Pirates scored the game's final basket on an offensive rebound as the four-minute overtime period expired. Proviso East out-scored Willowbrook 9-7 during the overtime.

Senior Ethan Schuemer scored 23 points and grabbed 16 rebounds for the Warriors, who held a 32-23 lead at halftime and a 48-44 edge after Schuemer also handed out six assists. Junior Matas Masys scored 19 points, while senior Matt Myers tallied 14 points. Myers made eight of nine free-throw attempts.

Willowbrook's record fell to 4-1 with the loss. The Warriors opened their season by winning four straight games and claiming the title at Stagg High School's Thanksgiving tourna-

Willowbrook will play its first home game of the season this Friday. The Warriors will battle District 88 rival Addison Trail in a conference

Chirus Fox PHOTOS Lombardian/Villa Park Review
The Glenbard East boys basketball team played two home games In three nights last week. The Rams lost a Nov. 29 game against Oswego East, falling 77-62. Pictured during that game are senior Kenny Adams (No. 3-above left) and junior Clay Kepuritis (No. 42-above right). The Rams held a 28-13 lead after the first quarter, but the visiting Wolves stormed back to take a 36-34 halftime lead. Two nights after losing to Oswego East, the Rams beat Chloago's Perspectives Charter School 61-46. That victory gave Glenbard East an overall season record of 4-2. The Rams will kick off their Upstate Eight Valley Conference season with this Friday's game at South Eigin.

Improved Broncos win tourney, fall to St. Ignatius, Carmel

LOMBARDIAN-VILLA PARK REVIEW STAFF REPORTER

The Montini Catholic boys basketball team cruised to the championship of the Battle for the Ridge tournament in Niles during the week of Nov. 20-25, going undefeated and winning its four games by an average of 38.5 points.

"That was a really, really good feeling (to win the tournament)," said Montini head coach Daryl Thomas. "It was good for the kids and good for their mental state and confidence."

for their mental state and confidence."

The Broncos hoped to build on this title when they hosted St. Ignatius and Carmel in nonconference games Friday and Saturday evening. Although they came up short in both contests—losing 73-64 and 66-65, respectively—there's reason for optimism that the 2017-18 Broncos will be competitive and successful.

On Friday, the Broncos battled back from a 43-29 deficit early in the third quarter and cut St. Ignatius' lead to 62-61 with 2:55 to play on a steal and three-point play from guard Anthony Thompson. However, the Wolfpack later took advantage of Montini foul trouble, sinking 17 of 21 at the free throw line during the fourth period to seal the victory.

On Saturday, Montini survived a furious Carmel comeback in the second half during which the Corsairs grabbed the lead in the fourth quarter. The Broncos regained the lead, but Carmel tied it at 65-65, setting up a game-winning free throw for the Corsairs in the closing seconds.

seconds.

"I like that we didn't quit; we stayed with it," said Thomas, referring to Friday's defeat. "We buttled and that's something we didn't do last year. At the same time, when you get down 15 or 16 (points) to a team like that it's going to be difficult to get back into it.

"We did some really smart things to get back into it and we did some really stupid things to let it get away. We have to do a better job of making good decisions in certain situations and defensively, one of the things that we've been really good at this year, we just kind of fell apart

The Broncos (4-2) got back into the matchup with an 11-2 run in the third quarter, and pulled to within five points of St. Ignatius three times. A Matthew Morrissey basket off a feed from Scott West with no time remaining on the third-period clock made it 51-46 St. Ignatius.

But foul trouble caught up with the Broncos in the final quarter. Four players fouled out, leaving the Broncos short-handed—especially up

See BRONCOS, Page 15

Junior Scott West (No. 12) defends a St. Ignatius opponent. The Broncos fell to 4-2 with Saturday's him , span hours of his ment has the

Daily Herald

To report your score:

(630) 955-3557 By telephone (630) 955-3540

n dailyherald.com

Local Sports

27 Page 5 Treating

More prep pictures

... at dailyherald.com

You'll find more high school sports photographs available when you log on to our Web site.

So many College Achievers to catch up with

As we said to conclude last week's College Achlevers col-umn, there's more where that came from...

Helping Yale win Its first outright Ivy League foot-ball title in 37 years, senior defensive back Hayden Carlson (Glenbard West) was a first-team defensive selection on both Ivy League and all-New England teams. Having played in all 39 of the Elis' games spanning four seasons and sharing the program's LoProto Award this season for passion and skill in the defensive secondary, Carlson led Yale in tackles each of the last three seasons. This year he made 63 tackles with a sack, 3 interceptions, a fumble recovery and 8 pass breakups.

Just a sophomore at Ball State, linebacker Jacob White (Hinsdale Central) was the recipient of the program's Dave McClain Leadership Award, named for the Cardinals' coach from 1971-77. A defensive captain, White led the Cardinals with 72 tackles, including 10 against Buffalo. He made at least 5 tackles in 9 of 11 games, not bad for playing the last nine games with a cast to protect a broken bone in his right hand.

College senior Sam Norgaard Central linebacker (Neuqua Valley) made all-Conference first team with 107 tackles in only 8 games, including 22 against Coe College. He had 2 sacks, 4 interceptions, broke up 5 other passes and caused 2 fumbles. Headed to play in Saturday's Tazon de Estrellas (Bowl of the Stars) in Tijuana, Mexico, Norgaard's 13.4 tackles per game ranked fifth in Division III.

Winona State's 30-20 win over Bemidji State on Aug. 31 featured two of the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference's top linebackers both out of Addison, Winona State senior Mlke Imperlale (Addison Trail) repeated as first-team South Division after making 46 tackles, 3.5 for loss: Bemidii State senior Niko Daniello (Lake Park) earned North Division honors with 82 tackles, 13 for loss with 4 sacks. Daniello wrapped it up last weekend in the annual FCS Bowl in Daytona, Florida.

When Millikin setter Emily Mihalkanin (Hinsdale South) earned only second-team College Conference of Illinois-Wisconsin (CCIW) in women's volleyball last year as a junior we about fell off our stool. She was first team this year, helping the Big Blue win a third straight conference title. The 2013 CCIW freshman of the year, Mihalkanin's 1,263 assists this season ranked fifth In Division III; overall she's second in Millikin history with

David Oberhelman Sidelines

5,491 assists fourth and with 214 service The biology with major a 3.77 grade-point average was 2017 Amer-2017 ican Volleyball Coaches first-team

Midwest region and honorable-mention All-America, and College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District. In a five-game win over Hope she recorded 63 sets, 1 off Mil-likin's match record. Leading Aurora University to a 26-8 record and their first appearance, and victory, in the NCAA Division III national tournament, Katle Von-dra (Downers Grove South) became the first Spartan in the program's 42-year history to earn All-America notice. The junior outside hitter was a second-team American Volleyball Coaches Association pick after averaging 4.21 kills and 3.03 digs per set.

Grant Lillard

(Hinsdale Central), a senior cen-ter-back for NCAA Division I runner-up Indiana University, was selected First Team All-America by the United Soccer Coaches Association. Starting all 25 games for the Hoosiers, the unanimous Big Ten defensive player of the year helped Indiana lead the nation with 18 shutouts, 7 goals against and a .260 goalsagainst percentage. He scored twice on 5 shots, both game winners. Among three final-ists for the Hermann Troto be awarded Jan. 5, Lillard hopes to be the Hoo-siers' sixth Hermann winner on a list that includes former Waubonsie Valley boys soccer coach Angelo DiBernardo. Lillard's Indiana teammate and former Hinsdale Central pal, junior Andrew Gutman, is a second-team United Soccer Coaches All-America pick, First Team Big Ten. Though a defender, Gutman finished second on Indiana with 18 points on 7 goals and 4 assists.
Trinity Christian's Jessica

Blanchl (York), a junior forward on Trinity Christian's women's soccer team, earned USCA All-America honors within the National Christian College Athletic Association. Bianchi, the Chi-cagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference player of the year with a league-high 33 goals, 12 assists and 78 points in 22 games, ranked fifth in the NAIA in points and goals and tied for sixth in game-win-ning goals, with 8. A repeat NCCAA All-America and 2015 honorable mention, in three seasons at Trinity Bianchi has racked up 157 points.

Northwestern Sharples defender Kayla Sharples (Naperville North) earned first-team all-Big Ten in wom-en's soccer. Starting with her header goal in the Huskies' season-opening 1-0 win over DePaul, one of 11 shutouts, Sharples scored 3 goals with 3 assists and notched 2 game-winners while starting all 23 games and playing all 2,146 minutes.

sophomore Augustana Anna Fank (Wheaton Warrenville South), first-team all-CCIW soccer, was named the Vikings' defensive MVP. Moving from forward, she helped limit CCIW foes to a goal a game and overall oppogoal a game and overall oppo-nents to 0.97 goals a game. Fank also scored 3 goals. Joining her as first-team CCIW were Elmhurst junior defender Annalisa Lappo (York) and Carroll senior midfielder Sabrina Georgeff (Neuqua Valley). Lappo helped Elmhurst hold foes to 15 goals and 0.90 a game, the Bluejays' second lowest total in history; Georgeff's 12 goals tied for Carroll's team lead.

The CCIW men offered repeat first-team selections Max Carey (WW South) of Wheaton and Nick King (Downers South) of Elmhurst, both seniors. Carey led the Thunder with 17 points on 8 goals and an assist, King, a three-time first-team pick, started all 18 games with a 1.52 goals-against average and 5 shutouts.

Missouri S & T midfielder David Murphy (Naperville Central) earned College Sports Infor-mation Directors Association Division II First Team Academic All-America this fall, Owning a 4.00 GPA in mechanical engineering, the senior scored 7 goals with 5 assists, his scoring percentage of 15.9 leading all Miners with at least 20 shots.

Waubonsee Community College sophomore forward Reuel Erastus-Obilo (Wau-bonsie Valley) was the Illinois Skyway Conference player of the year and midfielder Luis Correa-Cabral (West Chicago) earned National Junior College Athletic Asso-ciation Division I third-team All-America honors. The duo led the 17-6-1 Chiefs to their first appearance in the national tournament. Erastus-Obllo tled for ninth in the country with 58 points on 23 goals and 12 assists, Correa-Cabral 12th with 53 points on 20 goals and 13 assists

Getting a little ahead of ourselves season-wise, this one's too good to wait: Taylor University in Upland, Indiana, held its 21st annual "Silent Night" event Friday, agaInst Great Lakes Christian College. In this celebration Taylor students - pajama-clad dating to the 1980s but now wearing all sorts of zany cos-tumes — remain silent until the 10th point is scored. They then erupt madly and storm the court in loud celebration. Played the Friday before finals week, at the end of the game students sing "Silent Night" before exiting to enjoy a Christmas party in the com-mons. In front of a standing-room crowd of 2,187 fans at Odle Arena, Taylor junior forward Jake Hegge-land (Wheaton North) went to the free-throw line with the Trojans sitting at 9 points. He made that first shot, then turned heel and Jogged off the court as the students exploded and cascaded out of the bleachers. Heggeland, who averages 14.5 points, 6.6 rebounds and 1.5 blocks a game, was named Taylor's a gaile, was indicat raylor's athlete of the week. A video tweeted by Taylor University of him making the free throw to trigger the celebration has been viewed more than 33,000 times. Aided by Heggeland's 23 points, 7 rebounds, 3 blocks and 2 steals, Taylor beat Great Lakes Christian 97-84 to improve to 21-0 in

Silent Night games

Lenny Radtke (Glenbard
North) is long out of college by now, but on Oct. 21 the old footballer was inducted into North Central College's Athletic Hall of Fame. The 2006 Cardinals graduate earned three straight first-team CCIW honors including 2004 defen-sive player of the year, and earned All-America designa-tion from four organizations. A linebacker, Radtke's 152 tackles as a senior stands as North Central's single-season record, as do his 466 career stops. After helping the Car-dinals reach the Division III playoffs for the first time in 2005, he played first in the Aztec Bowl then was one of only three Division III players to play in the Hula Bowl, typi-cally a Division I all-star game. Another new hall of famer, on Thursday Jane Trzaska (Glenbard South) was inducted into Armstrong State University's (Georgia) hall for her softball career from 2014-17. The 2017 Peach Belt Conference pitcher of the year among more than a dozen honors for athletics and academics, Trzaska is ranked top nine among Pirates pitchers in wins, Innings pitched, strikeouts and winning percentage while also hitting .312 with 20 doubles, 21 home runs and 115 runs batted in.

Congratulations!

doberhelman@dailyherald.com

Getting up again is half the battle

BY CHRIS WALKER Daily Herald Correspondent

A gymnast doesn't endure the same pain that a team-mate does during an injury, but that doesn't mean they're on cloud nine either.

While they're suddenly worrying about their fallen teammate, they've got to regain their focus because now it's their turn to compete.

Just ask Jessica Houghton about it.

... Waubonsie Valley/ The Metea Valley co-op senior found herself with such a challenge on Wednesday challenge on Wednesday night. Visiting DeKalb/Sycamore co-op was en route to an easy victory and would win convincingly, 141.3 to 127.85 but there still was pressure on Houghton to perform after Kaity-Stocco fell hard off the balance beam.

balance beam.

"The first thing to go through my mind when Kaity hurt herself was shock and if she was OK." Houghton said. Then, before I knew it, I had to find my focus and compose myself while I'm thinking about how she's hurt and whether she's going to be OK. I just had to keep going and finish my routine.

Despite the circumstances Houghton seemingly made it look easy, posting a team-high 8.55.

"It was pretty solid," she said. "I still had a few wobbles, but I had a higher score than last time and I added a back handspring, which was very nice.

Houghton also led the team on floor with an 8.5.

"I've been working on my tumbling skills," she said.
"Overall, it was a better routine than before."

Marisa Cruz continues to focus primarily on her form when competing on bars. She scored a 7.8 to pace her team.

"It's all about the form for me than the big skills," she said. "I scored lower than usual, so it was an average routine for me. I need to work on more consistent execution."

Waubonsle Valley/Metea Valley co-op's strongest event continues to be vault. Its five gymnasts all scored at least an 8.7 with Melissa Martin leading the way with an 8.85.

Girls gymnastics

Thalla Bowen of the Metea Valley/Waubonsie Valley co-op competes on the vault against the DeKalb/Sycamore

She finished with a 31.4 in the all-around.

"In practice I had worked on raising the vault to get higher and have more time to plan my landing," she said. "The repetition on it in practice has helped me and it showed tonight in my score."

Thalia Bowen led the team in the all-around with a 32.1.

'I think this was one of my higher all-around scores of the season," she said. "Bars continues to be a struggle, but I'll continue to work on it."

With the busy holiday season and finals upcoming, coach Phil Gilmer knows his gymnasts are being stretched to the limit, so he's not overly pushing them. So far he's been pleased with how well they've stayed focused while making gradual progress toward one of the team's goals of surpass-of the team's goals of surpass-ing a team score of 130. "I think if we would've hit beam we probably could've broken a 130, but it's tough to watch a teammate fall. They watch a teaminate tain. Mey pushed through it and han-dled it well," he said. "They've got a lot going on right now so I'm asking them to go out and compete, have a good time and hope for the best.

"In the long run we want to be healthy at the end so for now the biggest thing is teaching these girls teamwork, coming together and step-ping up as leaders and they've done a really good job of that."

Lancers win again

By ORRIN SCHWARZ oschwarz@dailyherald.com

Girls basketball

someone up if someone's not playing well. That's one of our Just another quality victory for Lake Park this season.