Former school board member honored

Former District 88 Board of Education member Timothy Gillen, who recently resigned from the board, was recognized during the Aug. 13 board meeting. Gillen is pictured holding a personalized glass sculpture that was created by Bob Fritz, Willowbrook High School's former art department chair. Gillen joined the board in 2011. His two sons—Tim Jr. (Class of 1983) and Russell (Class of 1984) are Willowbrook graduates. The board recently appointed Tina Haralambopoulos to fill the vacancy created by Gillen's resignation. Haralambopoulos, who graduated from Addison Trail High School in 2002, will be officially sworn in during next week's Aug. 27 meeting. She will serve through the consolidated election on April 2, 2019.

New law to reduce cost of small business ownership in Illinois

According to State Senator Tom Cullerton (D-Villa Park), a new Illinois law he championed will spare small businesses from paying outrageous late penalties.

House Bill 4578, which was recently signed into law, will reduce late penalties from $300 to $100 for annual LLC report filings.

"This law will further the state's commitment to energizing our economy," Cullerton said. "I'm proud to work with my colleagues from both parties to eliminate this hurdle for small businesses."

Last year, Senate Bill 867 passed with bipartisan support to reduce a number of filing fees for LLCs to match those for corporations. This measure reduced the filing fees for the creation of an LLC from $500 to $150.

Cullerton also worked to lower the annual filing fee for LLCs from $250 to $75.

"Small businesses are the backbone of our economy," Cullerton said. "Local businesses play a huge role in our communities and economy. We need to do whatever we can to encourage businesses to make Illinois' their home."

Limited Liability Company or LLC is like a corporation, a limited liability company or "LLC," a separate and distinct legal entity. House Bill 4578 goes into effect immediately.

Veterans to get designation on state ID cards

A new law championed by state Sen. Tom Cullerton (D-Villa Park) will make it easier for veterans to obtain an official veteran designation on their state identification cards.

Cullerton's House Bill 4332 was signed into law recently, allowing an identification card issued under the federal Veterans Identification Card Act of 2015 to be used as verification for a veteran's designation on a state ID or license.

"This commonsense law will streamline the process for Illinois' veterans," Cullerton said. "Our veterans have already jumped through hoops and filled out various forms to receive a federal designation—they should not have to complete a redundant process to receive state approval."

"Our returning heroes should not have to go through additional red tape when they return home," Cullerton said. "It is our duty to ease their transsition back to civilian life by utilizing practical procedures."

This measure is supported by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Illinois AMVETS Service Foundation.

House Bill 4332 passed the Senate and House with bipartisan support. It goes into effect on Jan. 1, 2019.

The school year begins

Kickoff time! Warriors, Rams and Broncos play their openers on Friday

All three area high school football teams will kick off the 2018 season with home games on Friday night. Glenbard East, which will play Upstate Eight Conference opponents (this year's conference features 10 teams) in all nine of its regular-season games, will play Elgin. Willowbrook, which advanced to the quarterfinal round of the IHSA playoffs in each of the last two seasons, will take on Chicago's Curie High School in a non-conference game. Montini, which will begin its season with five straight home games, will face Chicago's Hyde Park Academy High School in a non-conference matchup.

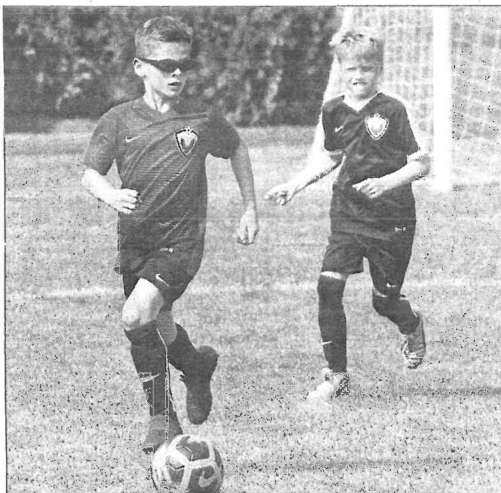

Montini has qualified for the playoffs in each of the last 25 seasons. Willowbrook, which won the 2017 West Suburban Gold Conference title with a perfect 6-0 conference mark, has won a total of four playoff games during the last two seasons. Glenbard East will try to end a 19-year playoff drought this season. The Rams won three post-season games on their way to the IHSA Class 6A semifinals in 1999.

COMFORT OVER STYLE

Arthritis and other musculoskeletal conditions that are common in seniors can turn getting dressed in the morning and undressed at night into difficult chores. However, there are some clothing options that make these physically challenging processes easier to manage with little or no help. Clothing should be loose-fitting and have simple closures. Sweatpants, skirts or trousers with elastic waists are good options. Roomier and stretchy v-necked sweaters, shirts and nightdresses are easier to get on over the head. Wrap-around skirts and dresses with easy touch VELCRO® closings provide comfort as well as utility and style. Slip-on shoes, slippers with non-skid soles and rubber soled shoes with stretch ties can make wearing safer and easier. You should always dress the affected side first and then the other hand, arm or leg. When undressing be sure to save the affected side for last to ease the discomfort.

The Rest of the Best

Argo at St. Francis

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: St. Francis defensive back Noah Salinas recorded his team-high 2 interceptions in this game last season; quarterback Mike Baffa threw for 1 touchdown and ran for another. The Spartans' 27-7 victory in the opener was their only win of 2017.

Buffalo Grove at Downers Grove North

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: With Joe Horeni now coaching the Trojans, everyone's anxious to see their new offense. Especially with junior Drew Cassens shifting from defense back to play quarterback. Early on they may lean on a defense that returns six starters.

Conant at Addison Trail

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Between running backs Pablo Mosely, J'Lan Williams, Kevin Catano and quarterback Nick Daudelin, the Blazers have multiple options for pounding the ball behind returning offensive linemen Alex Sakleh, J.T. Daniels and Jake Zaborowski.

Curie at Willowbrook

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: The Warriors start the season ranked 10th in the AP Class 6A poll. Again they have an abundance of athletes, it's just a matter of where they play. Scott and Sam Tumilty will be key two-way players, as will Franshun Jordan and D'onte Gholston.

DeKalb at Lake Park

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: An amazing turnaround continues at DeKalb, which last year earned a fifth straight playoff berth. It's become a nice rivalry game for the Lancers, who bring strength to both lines with Patrick Panasiuk, Isaac Moore, Kyle Holliday and DeMarco Lee.

Downers Grove South at Bolingbrook

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: If the Mustangs are ready to compete for the WSC Gold title, now's the time to show it. With George Ross settled in at quarterback and junior Jayden Lambert energizing the offense, they'll try to challenge the ninth-ranked team in Class 8A.

Elgin at Glenbard East

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: This Upstate Eight Conference opener gives Glenbard East a good opportunity to establish its ground game. Four Rams offensive linemen are back to lead the way for new running back Jake Netchin and third-year quarterback Bret Bushka.

Fenton at Maine East

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Fenton's seven returning defensive starters will remember allowing Leyden 42 points in the 2017 opener. Offensively quarterback Kyle Cacioppo will connect with receiver Diamon King, but Fenton must also keep Maine East honest with a rushing threat.

Kyle Holliday and his teammates open the season at home tonight against DeKalb.

Glenbard South at Streamwood

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Glenbard South makes its UEC debut and quarterback Nick Plaso makes his varsity debut. He'll try to avoid Streamwood's North Dakota-bound defensive lineman Elijah Beach, 6-3 and 260 pounds. It's a challenge for Abe Nuño and the Raiders line.

Hyde Park at Montini

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Returning Montini running back Nick Fedanzo opened last season with 2 touchdowns in a 51-8 Broncos win over Hyde Park. There may be a couple more Friday, but of main interest is which of Montini's several quarterback candidates fares well.

Kenelans at Hinsdale South

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: This is a new opener for Hinsdale South. The Hornets have enjoyed some terrific quarterback-receiver combinations in recent years. They're hoping for a similar chemistry between quarterback Marquese Garrett and receiver Terrill McCray.

Metea Valley at Wheaton Warrenville South

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Metea Valley quarterback Patrick Straub closed out the 2017 season as an injury replacement. Now the job is all his. He'll try avoiding a terrific WW South defensive front headed by Isiah Brown-Dietzman, Chase Keating and Jack Kelly.

Lisle at Harvard

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Past playoff perennial Harvard has fallen on hard times, 0-9 and 1-8 the last two seasons. Lisle looks to keep the Hornets mad with its quick-hitting ground game anchored by returning offensive tackles Charlie Waldusky and Zach Zikuda.

New Trier at York

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: The Mike Fitzgerald era begins at York with great anticipation. All eyes will be on the offense but Dukes fans might be just as impressed by the defense. Linebacker Zane Heemsoth and linemen Bo Thomas and Ben Melion lead an experienced crew.

Simoon at Naperville North

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Naperville North's offense was gutted by graduation but playmakers remain. While the Huskies settle in at quarterback, keep an eye on running back Ameir Wilbourn and receiver Matt Heinz in front an offensive line led by Sammy Caldarazzo.

Thornridge at Wheaton Academy

Game time: 7:15 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Wheaton Academy opens against a larger, unfamiliar foe. Should the Warriors' new lines hold they're poised to strike quickly with Ben Thorson, Noah Jones, Cristian Carstens and others back in key skill spots on both sides of the ball.

Waubonsie Valley at Oak Park

Game time: 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Oak Park, out of the West Suburban Silver, is a strong opener on Waubonsie's tough schedule. Warriors new full-time starters, quarterback Jack Drow and tailback Bryce Logan, aim to stretch the Huskies' defense far and wide.

West Chicago at South Elgin

Game time: 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

The quick hit: West Chicago's Jack Rustman makes his coaching debut against Dragan Teonic, late of Larkin. South Elgin always brings quickness, so Wildcats linebackers Jeremy Grant and Mike Wagner must keep the Storm within the hash marks.

Westmont at Seneca

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Michael Thompson's 39-yard touchdown catch gave Westmont a 7-0 halftime lead last year in Week 4. Seneca then scored 30 points unanswered. New Sentinels quarterback Troy Schlicher would like to strike early and keep it going.

Wheaton North at Evanston

Game time: 7 p.m. Friday.

The quick hit: Another tough nonconference opponent for the Falcons, who face an Evanston team that's made seven playoff appearances in eight years. Wheaton North will reload its powerful ground game with returning running back Antowon Tolbert.

Addison TrailBlazers

Frustrating trends are the worst. Last year Addison Trail's football team finished 4-5 for a third straight season, meaning for three straight seasons the Blazers finished on the wrong side of the edge of playoff qualification.

That edge looms again, and this group aims to land on the right side.

"We need to be more consistent," said Blazers coach Paul Parpet Jr. "One week to the next we'd look like two completely different teams. Both sides of the ball we have to be more consistent."

The offensive consistency of Nick D'Ambrose, who rushed for more than 2,500 yards the last two years, graduated. That leaves a gaping hole in production, but Addison Trail will take a different offensive path this season.

Quarterback Nick Daudelin returns after starting four games as a junior. Part of that experience came at running back, and his athleticism will come in handy with an increased workload.

"I want the ball in Nick Daudelin's hands 80 percent of the time, whether he's running the ball or throwing it," Parpet said. "He's by far the biggest weapon we have coming back."

Between running backs Pablo Mosely, J'Lan Williams and

One to watch: The Week 4 Gold opener against Willowbrook immediately will tell the Blazers where they stand.

Kevin Catano the Blazers hope to run the ball enough to take the pressure off Daudelin, who has experienced receivers in Dennis Ionikov and Vince Daudelin and three returning linemen — Alex Sakleh, J.T. Daniels and third-year starter Jake Zaborowski.

The defense has strength up front with returning nose Michael Ruggieri and Proviso West transfer Damien McCraney. Sammy Retondo and Nico Nasti lead the linebackers, while Ionikov, Catano and Mosely will be two-way players in the secondary.

Last season the Blazers held four opponents to 7 points or fewer, but they were shut out three straight weeks.

Again, consistency is crucial.

"We'll be fine on defense, but we have to put more points on the board," Parpet said. "That's what it'll take to get us back to the playoffs."

The breakdown

Coach: Paul Parpet Jr. (ninth year, 38-38).

2017 record: 4-5, 2-4, tied for fourth in West Suburban Gold.

Top players: Nick Daudelin (QB, 6-1, 185, sr.), Jake Zaborowski (OL, 6-5, 290, sr.), Michael Ruggieri (DL, 6-0, 270, sr.), Dennis Ionikov (WR-DB, 5-10, 168, sr.), J.T. Daniels (OL-LB, 6-2, 197, sr.), Vince Daudelin (WR-DB, 6-1, 175, sr.), Sammy Retondo (LB, 5-10, 184, sr.).

BenetRedwings

One word revolves around Benet's football program.

Unprecedented.

For the first time the Redwings advanced to the state semifinals in two straight seasons. And never before have they qualified for the playoffs six straight years.

With a defense returning four of its top six tacklers and a maturing offense, unprecedented might be back as Benet fields the talent to match and exceed its recent success.

"From Day One of workouts in June, I could tell they were ready to exceed what our past teams have accomplished," said Redwings coach Pat New. "The pieces are in place."

As good as Benet's defense has been the last few seasons, this year's edition might be its best. Jack Benish, who had 13 sacks last year, Jacob Snell and Jackson Stephens combined for more than 180 tackles on the line. Twelve of linebacker Mike Wymer's 91 tackles were for loss.

The ball-hawking secondary remains a strength despite the graduation of Connor Reid and Ben Cooney. Jack Cooney and Billy Lawler should keep up the strong tradition in the defensive backfield.

"This could be the most dominating defense we've had," New said. "With our line and Wymer we should really be able to pressure the quarterback."

Forced into action as a sophomore because of injury, junior quarterback Colin Gillespie is ready to take on a bigger role in the offense. His receiving corps is extremely inexperienced, but Ben Hickey rushed for 560 yards and the line returns starters Shane O'Mara and Matt Kickel.

"It was great that Colin got that experience," New said. "It'll definitely slow down for him this year."

Balance on both sides of the ball makes Benet a team to watch in the East Suburban Catholic Conference and in Class 7A.

"Expectations are high, but our guys know nothing will be handed to them," New said. "It won't be easy."

The breakdown

Coach: Pat New (ninth year, 56-33).

2017 record: 9-4, 5-2, tied for third in East Suburban Catholic Conference.

Top players: Jack Benish (DL, 6-3, 235, sr.), Colin Gillespie (QB, 6-1, 185, jr.), Jack Cooney (DB, 6-0, 170, sr.), Mike Wymer (LB, 6-0, 190, sr.), Ben Hickey (RB, 6-0, 178, sr.), Jacob Snell (DL, 6-4, 225, jr.), Jackson Stephens (DL, 6-3, 250, sr.), Billy Lawler (DB, 5-8, 160, sr.).

Downers NorthTrojans

New Downers Grove North coach Joe Horeni won't be reinventing the wheel, but change is coming.

"Throwing the football is not going to be out of the ordinary," said Horeni, a Downers Grove South grad who spent the last three seasons as Highland Park's coach. "For a program that hasn't thrown a ton, our quarterback and receivers have really taken to it."

Last season the Trojans ran the ball four times as much as they threw it and piled up more than twice as many yards on the ground. Horeni stresses the run will still set up the pass, but the pass will be featured much more.

Junior Drew Cassens was a varsity defensive back last season, but he'll shift to his natural position at quarterback. He's a physical presence behind center and a threat to run behind returning linemen Tommy Ward and Nolen Bowerman.

With little rushing or receiving yardage returning, the offense is a work in progress — especially with a scheme shift from veer option to spread. As many as four backs will run the ball in addition to Cassens.

"We'll do as much as our quarterback can do," Horeni said. "If he maximizes his potential, we'll be dangerous."

One to watch: Hinsdale Central in Week 4 begins a brutal stretch of WSC Silver games for the Trojans.

As the offense acclimates, the defense should thrive with five returning starters. They're led by three returning linemen, including end Joe Passarelli, who last season had 42 tackles and a team-high 4 sacks, Zach Bouma and Donovan Bryant.

"If we're going to be experienced at one spot, I want it to be up front," Horeni said. Linebackers Ryan Schindler, up last year as a sophomore, and Owen Geraghty, hurt most of last season, will be critical in the heart of the unit. Cassens may see time in the secondary, but only in spot situations.

Horeni knows Cassens will have his hands full leading the revamped offense.

"We're asking a lot of him and our juniors, but they've earned that opportunity," Horeni said.

The breakdown

Coach: Joe Horeni (first year, fourth year overall, 15-14).

2017 record: 5-5, 3-3, fourth in West Suburban Silver.

Top players: Drew Cassens (QB-DB, 6-3, 198, jr.), Joe Passarelli (DL, 6-0, 215, sr.), Zach Bouma (DL, 6-3, 265, sr.), Tommy Ward (OL, 6-2, 260, sr.), Nolen Bowerman (OL, 6-4, 245, sr.), Donovan Bryant (DL, 6-0, 255, sr.), Ryan Schindler (LB, 6-1, 190, jr.), Owen Geraghty (LB, 5-8, 180, sr.), Marty Kline (DL, 6-2, 210, sr.), Henry Gates (DB-WR, 6-0, 155, jr.), Antwaun Scott (RB, 5-8, 175, jr.), Josh Lumpkin (RB-DB, 5-6, 155, jr.).

Downers SouthMustangs

Now that Downers Grove South boasts a bunch of playmakers, the Mustangs will take full advantage.

It means more two-way play than typically experienced at the Class 8A school and a learning experience for players and coaches alike.

"It's not something we've done in the past too much," coach Mark Molinari said. "It's pretty taxing. We're still learning how to practice that way and prepare for games. It's not perfect, but that's how we have to do things now."

A 55-player roster is pretty small by program standards, but Molinari believes it's a quality 55.

Jayden Lambert could play anywhere. Last year he rushed for 494 yards, threw for 99 and caught two passes. George Ross stabilizes the quarterback spot after starting last year due to injury, but Lambert might be seen there, at running back or receiver.

Lambert is so valuable to the offense that Molinari hopes to use him sparingly on defense.

"He's a force that teams have to deal with," Molinari said. "He's an explosive athlete."

Jaelynn Blecke is another explosive athlete who will play on both sides of the ball with Kyle Heavey and Vinny Provenzano in the secondary. Standout linemen Shawn Lee and Kendall Burrow also will play both ways.

Lee, Burrow and Max Foster anchor a strong offensive line. Kenton Johnson and sophomore Devean Washington will be the main running backs.

The defense, which last season notched three straight shutouts, took a hit with the graduation of all-state lineman Sergio Villalobos. The Mustangs remain dangerous up front thanks to Ali Issa's return for a third starting season.

Even with the large number of two-way players, the Mustangs have the talent to claim the West Suburban Gold title for the first time since 2013.

"I hate to say this at Downers Grove South, but I'd say we're underdogs this year," Molinari said. "We have legitimate playmakers who can make it happen."

The breakdown

Coach: Mark Molinari (sixth year, 20-25).

2017 record: 4-5, 4-2, tied for second in West Suburban Gold.

WillowbrookWarriors

It's another season when Willowbrook's football team doesn't return much experience.

And it's another season when the Warriors aren't concerned about it.

They were in the same situation a year ago and responded by claiming their first outright

West Suburban Gold title and advancing to the Class 6A quarterfinals. Graduating a player like Jack Jessen — an all-stater who rushed for 2,050 yards and led the defense with 90 tackles — isn't easy, but Willowbrook is accustomed to the next-man-up mentality.

"The majority of the time you win with seniors, so we're OK with graduating one group and putting a new group out there," said Warriors coach Nick Hildreth. "None of our guys last year started as juniors and you see how they did."

However it shakes out, the Tumilty brothers will be at the heart of it. Scott and Sam, a junior, return to the secondary and will be in the mix to play quarterback along with junior Everett Stubblefield, last year's sophomore quarterback.

One to watch: Hinsdale Central in Week 2 is the perfect test to see how well Willowbrook has reloaded from last season.

All three figure greatly into the offensive scheme regardless of where they play. Only two linemen — Matt Knudtson and Tyler Walenga — return to the offense. Franshun Jordan and D'onte Gholston take over at running back, while a revolving group of receivers looks to emerge.

The unit is tasked with making up for nearly 5,000 yards of graduated offense.

The defense is a little more experienced, although the entire linebacking corps must be replaced. Scott and Sam Tumilty combined for 11 interceptions, while lineman Nick Rushing notched 6 sacks.

Defensive back DeAndre Holliday and lineman Emmanuel Chavez also return. Look for Gholston and Jordan to be among the players filling the second level.

"It'll take a few weeks to figure it all out," Hildreth said. "But we'll get there."

The breakdown

Coach: Nick Hildreth (eighth year, 38-33).

2017 record: 10-2, 6-0, first in West Suburban Gold.

YorkDukes

How much difference can one change make?

York's football team is about to find out.

When Mike Fitzgerald was hired as the Dukes' coach in February, he introduced a new era. He's tasked with turning around a program that last reached the playoffs in 2011 and has won 14 games since 2012.

Fitzgerald, who spent the last two seasons as Naperville North's offensive coordinator and the previous two seasons as head coach at St. Francis, believes the turnaround is right around the corner.

"I'm really excited about this group," he said. "They've really embraced the work ethic and the commitment. Now they have to go above and beyond to get to that next tier."

One player well on his way to that next tier is 6-foot-5 linebacker Zane Heemsoth, who also could see time on offense. Offered by Ball State among others, Heemsoth, who notched 110 tackles last year, leads a unit returning six starters, including Bo Thomas and Ben Melion on the line, and linebackers John Milling and Anthony Scalcitti.

Fitzgerald will make his biggest impact on offense, where running backs Josiah Scott and KeVon

Robinson return after combining for 630 yards. The Dukes spent the summer working with two quarterbacks — Joe Javorek and Danny Dunn — but the offense is designed to be flexible based on personnel.

"We're going to put our players in the best position possible," Fitzgerald said. "It's about making the defense respect every player on the field."

Offensive improvement — especially in the West Suburban Silver against Glenbard West and Hinsdale Central — is crucial to the Dukes' turnaround.

"Hopefully we can get it ironed out, but it'll take work,"

Fitzgerald said. "We've exposed them to a lot, and a big part of the process is simplifying things and going from there."

The breakdown

Coach: Mike Fitzgerald (first year; third year overall, 15-7).

2017 record: 1-8, 1-5, sixth in the West Suburban Silver.

Top players: Zane Heemsoth (LB, 6-5, 230, sr.), Bo Thomas (DL, 6-0, 210, sr.), Ben Melion (DL, 6-1, 240, sr.), Josiah Scott (WR-RB, 5-10, 160, sr.), KeVon Robinson (RB-DB, 6-1, 195, sr.), Hayden Snyder (OL, 6-2, 215, sr.), Josh Mathiasen (OL-DL, 6-2, 295, jr.), Tyrone Birmingham (TE, 6-0, 225, sr.), John Milling (LB, 6-1, 200, sr.), Anthony Scalcitti (LB, 5-8, 190, sr.), Joe Goehl (DB, 5-11, 160, sr.), Joe Javorek (QB, 6-2, 185, sr.), Danny Dunn (QB, 5-11, 160, sr.).

Bartlett excited by new look to program

Daily Herald Reports

A new era begins for Bartlett football in more ways than one.

For two decades, Bartlett players had to catch a bus to Streamwood High School to play so-called home games because the Hawks didn't have their own field.

Those nomadic days are over. The Hawks fly home for good on Aug. 31 when they play Glenbard East in the first home game under the lights at their new stadium complex.

The program also sports a new sideline look. Bartlett is now coached by Matt Erlenbaugh, a Hersey graduate who spent the last two seasons leading Chicago Solorio to consecutive playoff appearances. The 34-year-old takes over a program of 135 players, 54 on the varsity.

The collective goal is to bounce back from last year's school-record worst 2-7 finish and return to the playoffs. Bartlett made the postseason 12 times in 13 seasons between 2000-2012. The only playoff appearance since happened in 2015.

Bartlett hopes to improve on last year's 14.3 points a game scoring average with a prostyle offense called by coordinator Bob Murray, whose son, Bobby, was the starting quarterback at Geneva last season.

New quarterback Jonah O'Brien is a senior transfer from Wisconsin. The 6-foot-2, 195-pound senior was a two-year varsity starter but missed most of his junior season due to an elbow injury, Erlenbaugh said. The right-hander can throw the ball accurately down the field, makes good decisions and has stepped up as the leader of the offense, according to his coach.

O'Brien gains a stable of tall, talented receivers, headed by returning all-Upstate Eight pick Austin Gates. Also one of the area's best basketball players, Gates is strong in the air and can outleap defenders. He finished a successful junior campaign with 65 receptions for 784 yards and 9 touchdowns. Gates also rushed 12 times for 28 yards and a score.

Opponents will have trouble matching up against O'Brien's other targets: 6-foot-3 senior Nick Mansk and 6-4 sophomore Hayden Angell.

Marmion:

While Marmion did lose some key components from last year's squad, 31st-year coach Dan Thorpe is not one to throw in the towel.

His 2018 roster gives you a glimpse why.

The Cadets return plenty of talent from a 2017 team that went 6-6, beating No. 2 seed Shepard in the first round of the state playoffs before losing to Springfield Sacred Heart-Griffin in the second round and St. Ignatius in the Prep Bowl quarterfinals.

Thorpe returns five starters on offense and six more on defense. The offense quintet features linemen John Roche, Blake Kramer and Marshall Foerner, along with tight end Miles Childers and running back Peter Ferraro. Thorpe said Foerner is drawing "great interest" from Division I schools on the heels of a strong summer, while Roche also should play at the collegiate level. Ferraro has plans to wrestle at a Division I school with Harvard being his top choice.

Senior Declan McDonald takes over at quarterback with conference offensive back of the year Brandon McPherson having graduated.

"We have a good quarterback in Declan," Thorpe said. "He can throw all passes needed and he really understands the offense. He has thrown the ball great all summer and has developed an excellent relationship with Miles Childers."

Ferraro was an all-conference performer a year ago after averaging 5.0 yards a carry, 19.7 yards a catch and scored 8 total touchdowns.

Speaking of Childers, "Miles has great hands and can play both split end and tight end," Thorpe said. "He's a great blocker as well."

Senior Luke Reifsnnyder will help at fullback and is labeled by Thorpe as a "physical runner with old-school toughness." Roche is a three-year offensive starter and Kramer has added 40 pounds in the weight room, "He too will play college football," the coach said.

Junior running back Major Haas and junior guard Dan Seraphin also will help.

Glenbard North moves to the new DuKane Conference this season, while former league rival Naperville Central remains in the DuPage Valley Conference.

So much to look forward to again this football season

Back again, huh?

I can't tell you how happy I am to return for another season of writing Eyes on Five. So many fans eagerly await the start of football season in DuPage County, and I'm one of them.

To start things off in 2018, here are a few specific things I'm looking forward to this season.

Kevin Schmit

1 The district tug of war:

Expect to hear the word "districts" quite a bit over the next few months. And expect it to be part of the IHSA bylaw amendment process in November, leading to a statewide member vote.

I'm looking forward to watching it all shake out.

Endorsed by the IHSA football advisory committee, districts are an effort to eliminate the conference shuffling that's caused havoc throughout the state. Districts also will make it easier for schools to schedule nonconference games without risking playoff qualification.

If approved, districts would replace conferences — but only in football. There'd be eight or nine schools per district, still spread across eight classes, and they'd be aligned based on enrollment and geography. The one or two nonconference games at the start of the season wouldn't count toward playoff qualification.

Will it pass? That's where the tug of war comes in.

Every DuPage Valley Conference school will vote in favor, after the five schools endured a ridiculous chore trying to create schedules this season. Naperville North has to play Naperville Central and Metea Valley twice. Naperville Central must travel to Kentucky just to fill its nine-game slate.

On the other side of the ballot is the West Suburban Conference, which boasts an amazing 32 years of continuity. The WSC and the East Suburban Catholic Conference, in fact, were the only DuPage County conferences that didn't change from last season.

It's doubtful any of the 14 schools in the WSC will mess with its stability and tradition, but that's a story we'll delve into deeper as the season progresses.

2 The DuKane Conference:

Speaking of conference shuffling, I'm looking forward to the birth of the DuKane Conference.

Four schools — Glenbard North, Lake Park, Wheaton North and Wheaton Warrenville South — left the DuPage Valley Conference to form the DKC with Batavia, Geneva, St. Charles East and St. Charles North, who left the Upstate Eight Conference.

We'll soon find out if the grass is greener for any of the eight schools.

The DKC figures to be one of the most competitive conferences in the state. Beyond defending Class 7A champion Batavia, five other teams made the playoffs last season. With that kind of parity, there are no weeks off.

Among the front-runners are Batavia, of course, St. Charles North and St. Charles East.

Which begs the question...will any of the DuPage County teams be able to break through for a playoff berth this season?

3 The Daily Herald:

Part selfish and part plug, I'm looking forward to the Daily Herald's coverage of DuPage County football.

Here's what we have in store this season...

On Tuesday we'll bring you "Line-Light", a Q&A offering much-deserved positive attention to our offensive linemen. We'll also have area conference standings and a few other items worth a look.

Wednesday's football feature is, well, this...Eyes on Five.

We'll have a football notebook for you on Thursday in addition to Dave Oberhelman's Sidelines column. He'll write about different sports and different levels, but there will be plenty of football in there.

Friday is the perfect time to run our game previews, while game coverage fills our Saturday and often our Sunday pages.

That means football coverage six days a week in the Daily Herald. Not bad.

And that's not all...

4 The extras:

Going beyond print is something I look forward to this season.

For several years Dave Oberhelman and I have shot weekly videos previewing the top games for the upcoming weekend. Those will continue this season and can be found at football.dailyherald.com — mixed right in with all of our football coverage.

Dave and I are adding something new this season, and it's a podcast. We've recorded two so far and the response has been great, thank you!

You'll find "Tailgating with Dave and Kevin" at SoundCloud with a link also at football.dailyherald.com.

It'll mostly be the two of us talking about the latest news in DuPage County football — this week we made predictions for the season — but we're also gathering interviews that we'll sprinkle in along the way.

Just a little something extra for our die-hard football fans.

5 Stat time:

Last season Willowbrook won its first West Suburban Gold title.

In the process the Warriors became the fifth different Gold champion in as many years.

Willowbrook, Leyden, Hinsdale South, Addison Trail and Downers Grove South each have taken turns winning the league, leaving Morton and Proviso East as the only teams not to win it. If the Warriors go back-to-back this season, they'll be the Gold's first repeat champion since Downers South in 2009 and 2010.

WILLOWBROOK WARRIORS

Scotty Tumilty plans to keep winning ways going

Warriors are coming off back-to-back state quarterfinal appearances

By JOSHUA WELGE
jwelge@shawmedia.com

Scotty Tumilty has moved on from last season, but he hasn't completely forgotten.

Why would he?

Tumilty, a Willowbrook senior, was a starting cornerback for a team that won the program's first outright West Suburban Gold title and advanced to the Class 6A quarterfinals before losing to eventual champion Prairie Ridge.

Before that, Tumilty was called up to varsity in Week 8 his sophomore year. He was a backup defensive back and special teams player for a team that reached the 7A quarterfinals. It's been Willowbrook's most successful two-year run since 1975-76.

It's a new year, and much of the experience has graduated.

The mindset around Villa Park remains the same.

"Next man up, that's what the coaches always say," Tumilty said. "We don't have a ton of returners from last year, but the guys are ready to step up."

While the Warriors will be hard-pressed to replace Suburban Life Player of the Year Jack Jensen, he of the 2,050 rushing yards and 90 tackles, the cupboard is far from bare.

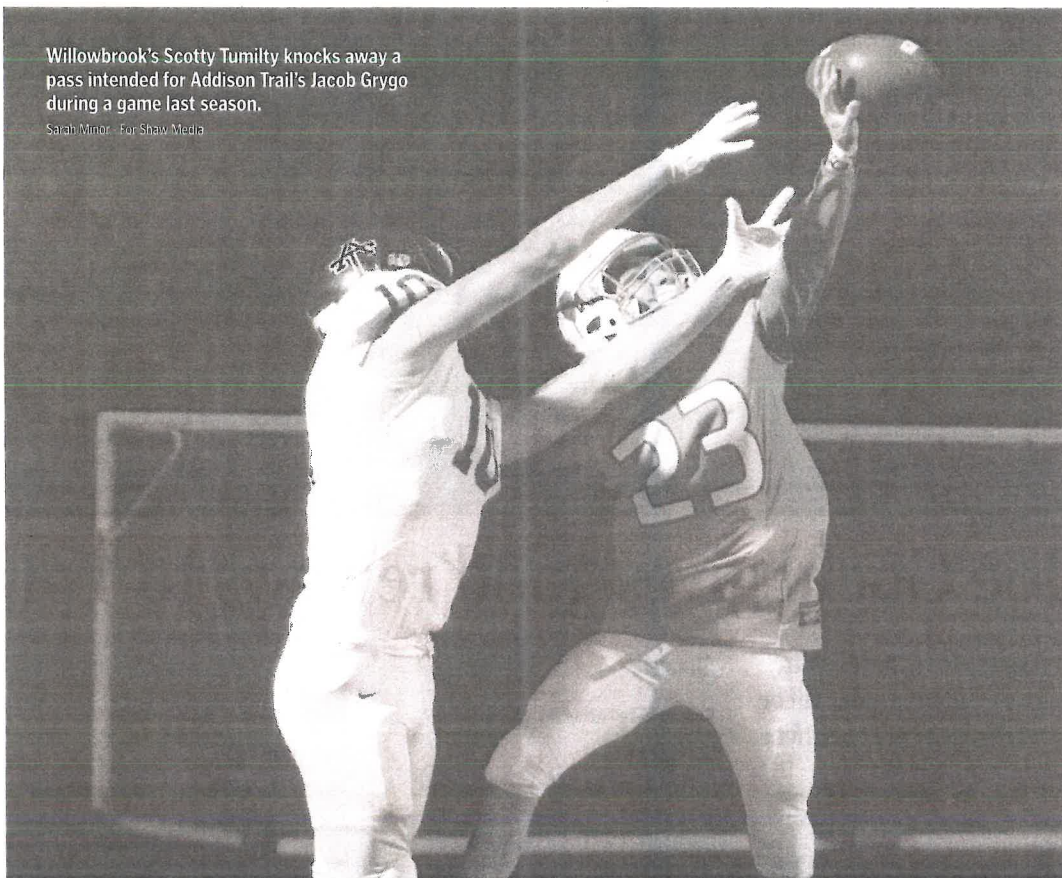

Willowbrook's defensive backfield, in particular, should be a strength and brings back the most experience. Tumilty and younger brother Sam Tumilty, who combined for 11 interceptions, return, as does talented junior DeAndre Holliday. They'll be particularly important with Willowbrook replacing its entire linebacking corps. Scotty Tumilty noted that two sophomores could see time at linebacker.

"We try to make sure that the younger guys know their stuff, and if they're in a wrong spot fix them," Tumilty said. "When game time comes we are full go. The coaches might get mad and yell at them, so we try to calm them down and make sure they are emotionally and physically ready."

That leadership seems a natural fit. Football is in the Tumilty family DNA. The boys' father, Scott, was a three-sport star at Naperville Central, and later an All-American in football and track at Augustana. Scott briefly was Willowbrook's head coach in 2011, but resigned before coaching a game. He's since been an assistant at Maine South.

The ball-hawking brothers, opposite corners last year, have been moved to safety this season.

"The pass is not a big adjustment," Scotty Tumilty said. "It's more reading the run."

To that end, Tumilty took a strength training class in the offseason, borrowing a workout from his dad's at Maine South. He lifted four days a week, and has seen noticeable gains. Tumilty, who has designs at playing at the next level, has been in contact with a number of Division II and Division III schools. The experience of playing "massive" guys from Prairie Ridge influenced Tumilty to put in the time to get stronger.

"Stronger, faster, more explosive," Tumilty said.

The brothers will be busy on both sides of the ball. They'll share time at quarterback, along with junior Everett Stubblefield.

"We'll both be in there for different formations and concepts," Scotty Tumilty said. "When I'm playing quarterback Sam will be out wide."

Tumilty looks forward to forging the same chemistry that made the last two years such a renaissance around the program.

"We loved playing with each other," Tumilty said. "I've tried to incorporate that with the new guys, a team bond. That's the main thing I took out of last year is that trust."

3 taken to hospital after Naperville apartment fire

By LAUREN ROHR

Three people, including a firefighter, were taken to the hospital Sunday morning after a fire at a Naperville apartment building, authorities said.

Crews responded at 8:25 a.m. to a report of a fire near Fifth and Ogden avenues, according to the Naperville Fire Department. Firefighters arrived to find an apartment in the 700 block of Benedetti Drive fully involved in fire. All residents of the building had evacuated.

Four people were evaluated by paramedics at the scene, and two were taken to Edward Hospital in Naperville, authorities said. One firefighter also was taken to the hospital. Their conditions were not immediately available.

The building was deemed uninhabitable, fire officials said. The cause of the blaze is under investigation.

Line-Light

Name: Patrick Panasiuk

School: Lake Park

Year: Senior

Best thing about being an offensive lineman:

Being able to protect your quarterback, protect your running back. That's for me. That's what it's all about.

Worst thing about being an offensive lineman: The lack of fame, like when the running back runs for 250 yards. But that's our job. We're going to walk off the field after a "W" just knowing we were the reason why.

Don't tell my coach that: Waking up at 5:30 in the morning isn't always the best thing to do. I'm not that early of a morning guy.

If I could change one thing about football: I'd like it to be more physical. It's the game and that's how you've got to play it.

Team not on our schedule I wish we could play: I wish we could go back to last year and play Neuqua again.

How I'll celebrate if I score a TD: I'd do the Gronk spike. No dance or anything. Just do the Gronk spike and walk off the field.

Something about me that would surprise you: I'm a real outdoorsy guy. I'm not really into sitting behind a computer playing video games.

Other sports I play: I used to do track. I think coming back in the weight room to help the football team has been better for me.

Favorite actor: Adam Sandler. I love all that stuff.

Favorite actress: I'd say Megan Fox because of the Transformer movies.

Favorite athlete: It's probably Clay Matthews, but I don't really watch NFL much anymore. I'm more interested in college football with my brothers (Mike and Jacob) playing at Michigan State.

Favorite musician: I'm a big country fan. Probably Toby Keith.

Pressure results in Wheaton N. win

From far across the field, the words of a Wheaton North player exhorting his teammates drifted into the hot, hazy, humid evening. "Keep up the pressure! Keep up the pressure!"

The Falcons heeded that missive Monday and the result was a 1-0 victory over Hoffman Estates in a Lake Park Hillner Classic tournament game played at Wheaton North.

"Coach was telling us, even though we were up 1-0, we looked like we were the team that was down 1-0," said Falcons junior forward Will Wanzenberg, "just the way we were pressing and constantly attacking, pressuring them when they had the ball and trying to win the ball back."

A win like that is a major confidence builder for a team that already had plenty of it coming into the season after reaching the sectional semifinals a year ago, said senior forward Alex Beausoleil.

"Coming off of last year, we thought we should have gone farther than we did, so we kind of have that fire beneath us. We want to go further than we did last year," he said. "We want to place in state."

Sometimes the best defense is a high-octane offense.

"That's something we've been working for four years to create in here," said Falcons coach Rob Stassen, "our forwards getting that high pressure and being that first line of defense, and they did it for 80 minutes. It was absolutely outstanding."

Wheaton North, which improved to 2-0-1, got the only goal it needed in the 11th minute off the boot of senior defender Sunday Moo on a free kick from senior teammate Ethan Shikany. But don't let that fool you.

The Falcons kept the pedal to the metal all night long, outshooting the Hawks 15-1. In fact the pressure was so intense that Hoffman Estates (2-2) managed to get off its shot with just 12 seconds left in the contest.

They needed every bit of that pressure to offset a terrific night in goal by Hoffman Estates senior Tyler Kelly, who finished with 9 saves.

How tough was Kelly? He went up high to make a huge save in the upper-right corner of the net on a header from Beausoleil in the 37th minute. In the 46th minute Wanzenberg found Beausoleil in the front of the net, but Kelly parried away a potential second goal.

Thirteen minutes later, Kelly knocked away another sure goal, this time by Falcons sophomore Graham Stephenson. It did result in a Wheaton North corner kick, which the Hawks cleared.

"He kept us in the game," Hoffman Estates coach Sean Armstrong said of Kelly. "Wheaton did an incredible job of putting pressure on us, and time after time either through dead balls or corners they were finding the slots and he was just resilient. It was all heart out there."

All in a night's work for Kelly ... though he would have preferred a "W."

"It was pretty hard, yeah, because it was only off of one play that we lost the game," he said. "We stuck with them the entire time. We still held our ground, and we had our chances but we didn't finish it."
