School Recognitions

Addison Trail

- Mr. AT was crowned on Friday night – congratulations to senior Brian Meagher who was the overall winner among 11 participants.
- March is Music in our Schools Month – thank you to our Music Department and Mr. Jeff Nellessen, Mr. Alex Stombres and Mr. Mark Corey for all of their work in putting on a wonderful assembly for our students. We also have many music events this month, including our annual AT/IT Concerts on March 12th, 17th, and 19th with the junior high students.
- Skills USA – 23 students qualified for Skills USA this year in Auto, Photo and Construction – congratulations to all of these students and good luck in your competition! State Competition is later in April.
- Blood Drive is this Thursday – come on out – all day in the East Gym.
- On March 2nd, 41 teachers were honored with Addison Trail’s Golden Apple award.
- PE Week is also coming up! Lots of fun events planned, with the culminating Superstars Assembly next Friday, March 20, 2020.

ATHLETICS UPDATE

- Spring Sports have started!
- We hosted an eight-team Girls Track invite on Saturday – AT placed 2nd!
- We are hosting Sectional Boys Basketball Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday this week – all beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Willowbrook

- Last Wednesday, 12 student performers and groups showcased their talents and skills at the Willowbrook’s Got Talent Show.
- Brook Olympics Week concluded with Relay for Life this past Saturday. More than 500 students from WB and AT participated and raised $88,000 in support of the American Cancer Society.
- Congratulations, Business Professionals of America has 14 students that qualified for Nationals this year. They will be traveling to Washington DC the first week in May. We wish them the best of luck.
- Our musicians performed at the Solo and Ensemble contest this past weekend. We earned 37 solo and 12 ensemble first division ratings.
- There are 52 students slated to take the Seal of Biliteracy exam this week in Spanish, Arabic, German, English, Polish, Tagalog, and Urdu.
