

Building

Resilience in our Children

Tuesday, Jan. 25, 2022 – 6:30 p.m.

Available via LiveStream

REGISTER NOW

The DuPage Regional Office of Education and Dr. Melissa Sadin invite the public to join them for a live-streamed event as they share the impact social distancing and social isolation had on students, parents, and teachers.

Dr. Sadin, an expert on developmental trauma, will explain the impact of the pandemic on children. She will also discuss how it may have affected you.

Specific strategies for supporting your children and healing from the pandemic will be provided. Participants will leave this engaging session with hope for a brighter future.

Live YouTube Link

If you have questions or need assistance with registration, call 630-407-6080.

Dr. Sadin, Ed.D., is the Executive Director of Ducks & Lions: Trauma Sensitive Resources; the Program Director at Creating Trauma Sensitive Schools for The Attachment & Trauma Network; and the Special Education Director at Unity Charter School. Her Trauma Guide Series of books are available on her website, www.traumasensitive.com.

DuPage Regional Office of EDUCATION

Excellence in Education

