Campbell shines at the Glenbard West Sectional

Senior Naomi Campbell of Willowbrook High School's girls gymnastics team won the all-around title at Friday's IHSA sectional at Glenbard West High School. Campbell won the sectional's all-around title with her score of 36.275. Campbell and her Willowbrook teammates opened the sectional by competing on the balance beam. Campbell is pictured during her sectional performance on the balance beam. She earned a score of 9.25 for that performance and finished in a tie for first place in that event. In her next event at Glenbard West, Campbell earned a 12th-place score of 8.85 in floor exercises. Campbell then delivered a second-place score of 9.25 on the vault. She completed the sectional by tying for fifth place on the uneven bars with her score of 8.925. Campbell qualified to compete on the balance beam, the vault, the uneven bars, and in the all-around competition at the IHSA state meet, which will take place this Friday and Saturday at Palatine High School. Campbell advanced to the finals of two events at last year's state meet. She tied for fifth in floor exercises and delivered a 10th-place finish on the balance beam in the finals of the 2024 state meet.

Man charged with threatening Illinois state representative

DuPage County State's Attorney Robert Berlin and Illinois State Police Director Brendan Kelly announced last week that a Downers Grove man has been charged with threatening Illinois State Rep. Anne Stava-Murray after allegedly leaving threatening phone messages for her in November 2024.

William Dzadon

On Feb. 7, 2025, Judge Alex McGimpsey issued an arrest warrant for William Dzadon, 71, who has been charged with two counts of threatening a public official, a Class 3 Felony. On Feb. 11, Dzadon turned himself in to the Illinois State Police and was released on personal recognizance the same day.

According to the felony complaint, which was filed with the Court on Feb. 7, 2025, on Nov. 13, 2024, at approximately 6:22 p.m., Dzadon allegedly "knowingly delivered to AMS-M, a state representative in the Illinois House of Representatives... a telephone voicemail containing a threat stating 'Quit filing my mailbox with your fing bt every other day you buck-toothed, ugly b* and now you're gonna start fing harassing me on the telephone. F you. I'll come to your fing office and fing blow you up.'"

The complaint further alleges that approximately four minutes later, Dzadon left a second message in which he stated "Where do you live? Let me know so I can fing return the favor to you."

Dzadon's next court appearance is scheduled for March 19 for arraignment in front of Judge Mia McPherson.

Homeowners urged to avoid property fraud alert services that charge money

DuPage County Recorder of Deeds Elizabeth Chaplin is reminding residents that her office provides a free service for homeowners to receive automated alerts any time a document is filed affecting their property, and to be wary of advertisements or mailers that attempt to resell government services for higher prices.

"I was watching a financial news channel recently and saw a commercial selling a property fraud alert service that we offer for free, and I wanted to make sure residents are aware that they don't have to pay for this valuable service," said Chaplin.

"I was watching a financial news channel recently and saw a commercial selling a property fraud alert service that we offer for free, and I wanted to make sure residents are aware that they don't have to pay for this valuable service."

—Elizabeth Chaplin

DuPage County's free property fraud alert system scans recordings in real time, and if a document is filed against a property on the subscriber list, the homeowner, or their attorney, will receive a phone call, email or text message.

By providing these free alerts in real time, residents can become aware of potentially fraudulent documents such as fake liens or forged deed transfers. By the time that many victims find out about fraud on their property, the scammer has encumbered it and disappeared with the stolen funds.

Because the state of Illinois maintains an open recording system where no authorization is needed to file against any property, scammers can anonymously mail in fraudulent land transfers that must, by law, be recorded by the office.

A free property fraud alert is one way that County Recorders can help residents stay ahead of potential fraud.

"Whether it's an ad in the mail telling you that you need to pay $200 for a copy of your deed or someone reselling a free government service, residents should always check with their local government office before engaging with these companies," said Chaplin.

To sign up for the office's free fraud alert, find your property identification number from your property tax bill and visit PropertyFraudAlert.com, or call 630-407-6500.

All-around champion

Willowbrook senior Naomi Campbell won the all-around championship at Friday's IHSA girls gymnastics sectional at Glenbard West High School. Campbell claimed the all-around title with her score of 36.275. Campbell tied for first in the sectional's balance beam competition by earning a score of 9.25. She is pictured (right) at the end of her performance on the balance beam. Campbell finished second on the vault (9.25), tied for fifth on the uneven bars (8.925) and placed 12th in floor exercises (8.85). The top five finishers in each sectional event, and the top five finishers in the sectional's all-around standings, automatically qualified for the IHSA state meet, which will take place this Friday and Saturday at Palatine High School. Campbell, therefore, will compete in the state meet's all-around competition. She will also contend in the meet's balance beam, vault and uneven bars competitions. Wheaton Warrenville South won the Glenbard West Sectional's team title with its total of 142.525. With its win, Wheaton Warrenville South earned a berth in the state meet's team competition, which will feature eight teams. Lake Park placed second in the six-team sectional with its score of 141.275. Willowbrook (133.5) landed in sixth place in the sectional's team standings. One year ago, Campbell earned a pair of top-five finishes at the state meet. She tied for fifth in floor exercises and placed 10th on the balance beam at the 2024 state meet. In addition to Campbell, Willowbrook's lineup at Friday's Glenbard West Sectional included junior Kaia Capulong, sophomore Lilli Macias, junior Leigh Berhardo, sophomore Mallory Yeazel, sophomore Macy Morris, freshman Ella Paulsen, freshman Rebekah Brown and senior Isabella Giannotti. Macias delivered a ninth-place score of 8.95 on the vault.

Finishing with a bang! Campbell earns a second-place finish at the state meet

Senior Naomi Campbell of the Willowbrook girls gymnastics team couldn't have picked a better time for a personal-best performance.

In her last routine as a Warrior, Campbell delivered a personal-best score of 9.525 in the final of the balance beam on Saturday at the IHSA state meet at Palatine High School.

Campbell earned the second-place medal in the state meet's balance beam competition. Senior Genevieve Herion of the Downers Grove co-op team won the championship on the balance beam with her score of 9.575 in the final.

One year ago, Campbell advanced to the state meet's final round in two events—the balance beam and floor exercises. Campbell finished 10th in the balance beam and tied for fifth in floor exercises at the 2024 state meet.

Campbell qualified for three individual events, and the all-around competition, of this year's state meet. The preliminary round of each individual event, along with the all-around competition, were contested on Friday in Palatine. The top 10 finishers and ties in each individual event advanced to Saturday's finals.

Campbell began Friday's preliminary round with a strong performance on the balance beam that received a score of 9.475. Campbell wound up tied for fourth place in Friday's preliminary standings of the balance beam. The preliminary competition of the balance beam featured 34 gymnasts.

Campbell earned a score of 8.85 for her floor exercises routine on Friday. Her performance in that routine was part of her score in Friday's all-around competition.

In her third event on Friday, Campbell received a score of 9.325 on the vault. She finished the day with a score of 8.275 on the uneven bars.

Campbell compiled a score of 35.925 in Friday's all-around competition. She landed in 21st place in the state meet's all-around standings. There were 33 gymnasts in Palatine's all-around competition in Friday.

Campbell finished in a tie for 21st place in the vault and placed 35th on the uneven bars in Friday's preliminary round and did not advance to the finals of those events.

Of the 10 gymnasts who competed in Saturday afternoon's final of the balance beam, Campbell was the eighth to perform. She delivered her routine after Herion, who was the seventh gymnast to compete in the balance beam final.

Campbell smiled after executing an excellent performance on the beam on Saturday. She then shared hugs with Willowbrook assistant coach Kari Wilson and Willowbrook head coach Andy Isaacson. Minutes later, Campbell headed to the awards stand to receive her second-place medal. The top five finishers, and ties, in each event, and the all-around competition, were recognized on the awards stand.

One year ago, when Campbell earned a tie for fifth on floor exercises at the state meet, she became the first Willowbrook girls gymnast to earn a top-five finish at the state meet since Chrissy Pupelis finished fourth in floor exercises at the 1995 state meet.

With Saturday's showing on the balance beam, Campbell became the first Willowbrook girls gymnast to earn a top-two finish at the state meet since Sheila Roelle claimed a second-place finish on the same event—the balance beam—at the 1984 state meet.

Campbell turned in her second-place effort on the balance beam a couple of months after suffering an injury to her right hand—her dominant hand. On Dec. 10, shortly before Willowbrook's first meet of the season, Campbell fractured her right pinky finger while practicing her routine on the uneven bars.

That injury, which affected Campbell's ability to perform in every event (vault, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercises), limited what she could do in her routines for a few of Willowbrook's regular-season meets.

"It was devastating and frustrating, because it was right before the first meet of the season," said Campbell shortly after she departed the medal stand on Saturday.

After missing the team's first meet, Campbell returned to action in a limited capacity.

"I was able to do beam and floor with no hands, so it [the injury] completely altered my routines," she said.

"I could get in the meet mode, but my confidence wasn't there."

In January, Campbell was able to return to compete in all four events.

"My confidence went up with each meet," she said.

Competing in the finals of two events at last year's state meet helped Campbell deal with the pressure of this year's event.

"I was more confident this season, because I'd been here before, but at the same time, I still had my injury in the back of my head, so I had some doubt. But I knew that this was my last time, so I just wanted to go out with a bang."

Isaacson praised Campbell's ability to deal with the adversity of her injury and perform at such a high level.

"What a great story," Isaacson said. "I've been around a long time—45 years. That was one of the best comebacks I've ever seen."

Shortly before she began her beam routine in Saturday's final, Campbell considered that it would be the final performance of her Willowbrook gymnastics career.

"Honestly, I was thinking to myself, no matter what happens today, I'm happy with how I persevered throughout the season," said Campbell of her thoughts before Saturday's routine.

Campbell, who has been involved in gymnastics for about eight years, is not sure where she will attend school after she graduates from Willowbrook. But she says she definitely has hopes of continuing her gymnastics career at the collegiate level.

Herion, who edged Campbell for first-place honors on the balance beam, won the state meet's all-around title with her score of 38.075. Herion advanced to the finals of all four individual events. In addition to winning the title on the beam, she placed second on the vault, sixth on the uneven bars and eighth in floor exercises. She also led the Downers Grove co-op team, which consists of gymnasts from Downers Grove South and Downers Grove North high schools—to the state meet's team title with its total score of 148.45.

Warriors' season ends

The Willowbrook girls basketball team concluded its season with last week's 73-21 loss to St. Charles East in an IHSA Class 4A regional game in Villa Park. The Warriors completed their 2024-25 season with a record of 8-21. The talented Saints, who are the No. 1 seed in the St. Charles East Sectional, led the Warriors 22-0 after one quarter, 46-2 at halftime and 66-12 after three quarters of the Feb. 17 regional semifinal. Senior Ayaani Gusman (No. 10), who scored Willowbrook's only two points of the first half, added 11 more points in the second half to provide 13 points. Senior Kendall Medinger and sophomore Jada Langston added four points each for the Warriors, who were the St. Charles East Sectional's No. 16 seed. With its win over the Warriors, St. Charles East advanced to the regional final of the Class 4A Willowbrook Regional. The Saints defeated Lake Park 44-22 in the Feb. 20 regional final to earn a berth in this week's sectional on their own home court. Earlier this week, St. Charles East faced Glenbard West in one of the sectional's semifinals. The winner of that game will face Batavia or Wheaton North in tonight's sectional final. The sectional champion will move on to a March 3 super-sectional at Hersey High School in Arlington Heights.

Willowbrook completed its regular season with an overall record of 8-22 and a conference mark of 4-8.

Morton led the Warriors 19-13 after one quarter of last week's battle. Morton's lead stood at 31-22 at halftime and 55-43 at the end of the third quarter.

Downers Grove South led Willowbrook 21-12 after one quarter of the teams' Feb. 20 meeting. The Mustangs held a 35-24 halftime lead. Downers Grove South's lead expanded to 55-30 by the end of the third quarter. The Warriors outscored the Mustangs 19-4 in the final eight minutes to narrow Downers Grove South's margin of victory.

Powell scored 13 points in Willowbrook's regular-season finale at Downers Grove South. Griffin provided 11 points. Junior Zach Boynton, who made a 3-point shot and sank all four of his free-throw attempts, contributed nine points for Willowbrook. Murrell and junior Antwan Walker added eight and six points, respectively.

Earlier this week, the Warriors opened the IHSA Class 4A post-season by facing West Chicago in a regional quarterfinal game in Villa Park. The winner of that matchup faced Glenbard West in a semifinal game at the IHSA Class 4A Addison Trail Regional on Feb. 26. Glenbard West is the No. 1 seed in the St. Charles East Sectional. Willowbrook is the sectional's No. 16 seed, while West Chicago is the sectional's No. 17 seed. The other regional semifinal in Addison on Feb. 26 will feature a meeting between St. Charles East (the sectional's No. 8 seed) and Addison Trail (the No. 9 seed in the sectional). The regional final in Addison will take place this Friday, Feb. 28.
